Welcome Home

When I am gone, release me, let me go – I have so many things to see and do. You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears. Be happy that we had so many years. I gave to you my love. You can only guess how much you gave to me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown. But now it's time I traveled on alone. So grieve a while for me if grieve you must. Then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while we must part so bless with memories within your heart. I won't be far away, for life goes on. So if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near and if you listen with your heart, you'll hear all of my love around you soft and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile, and "Welcome Home."

You showed me a lot of things, I learned a lot I didn't know. But you forgot to teach me one last thing—how to let you go. I know you didn't mean to leave me; sometimes we have no choice. I miss being your little sister, hearing my name called by your voice. I wish I got to say "I love you" before you were given to the sky. If God could grant me one last wish, I'd ask to say "Goodbye." You always meant a lot to me, I could never love you less; I know it's true when they say, "He only takes the best."

I would like to say to Bubba, his kids and their mom that I'm sorry ya'll have to go through this. Stay strong. To Miss Cat and my Step Pops, Herman, Sr., and the people that caused you to lose y'all's son...God will right this wrong. And to the rest of y'all's kids, my siblings and half siblings...we are our brother's keepers. To the rest of our friends and loved ones...stay strong, keep ya head up and chest stuck out.

Love always and forever, Chad (a.k.a. Ce Nitty)
