

Acknowledgment

You are never alone you know when sorrow comes your way, for there are those whose thoughts and prayers are with you every day. Though a loss as great as ours is very hard to bear, it really helps so much to know that others truly care. We sincerely appreciate your prayers, all acts of kindness, other expressions of love shown to us during this time of bereavement.

Obituary

PASTOR MITCHELL LEE DAVIS was born in "The Valley," Brownsville, Texas, on July 23, 1956, to Adell Wooten; his father, John Davis; and his stepfather, Willie (Bo) Wooten.

MITCHELL graduated from Crockett High and attend College at Paul Quinn College in Waco, Texas. He came to Waco, Texas, in 1974. He was employed at 7-Eleven in 1974 while attending college. He also worked for Levi Strauss, Mercury Tool, and Data Point in Waco. He managed the Quick Pak stores for 15 years and became the owner and operator of a family business, The Corner Stop, in 1991. In-between hours, Mitchell also had his own lawn service business.

MITCHELL was a hard worker. He was also a very giving person. Mitch loved to talk to people and hear their stories. He was always there to encourage those who were going through tough times, and he was always your biggest cheerleader. Once you met him and talked to him, you never forgot him. He had a way of being able to talk with anyone, and impacted so many people's lives and is loved by all.

PASTOR Mitchell Davis' many ministries were jail houses, nursing homes, the streets and The Corner Stop store. To many, he was also known as "Mitche's."

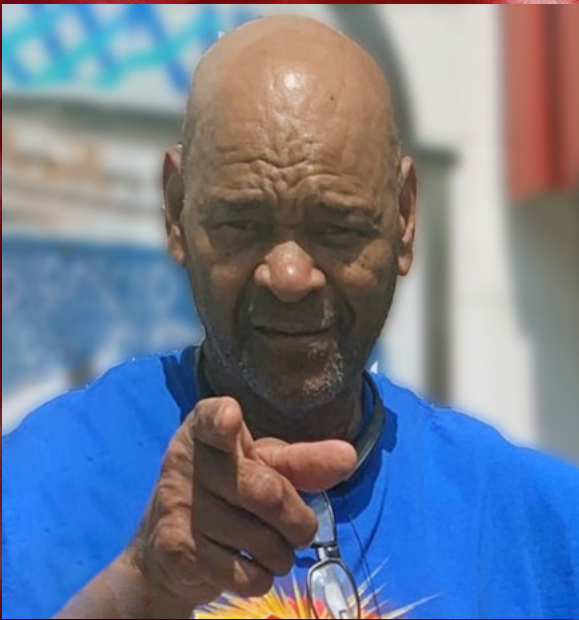

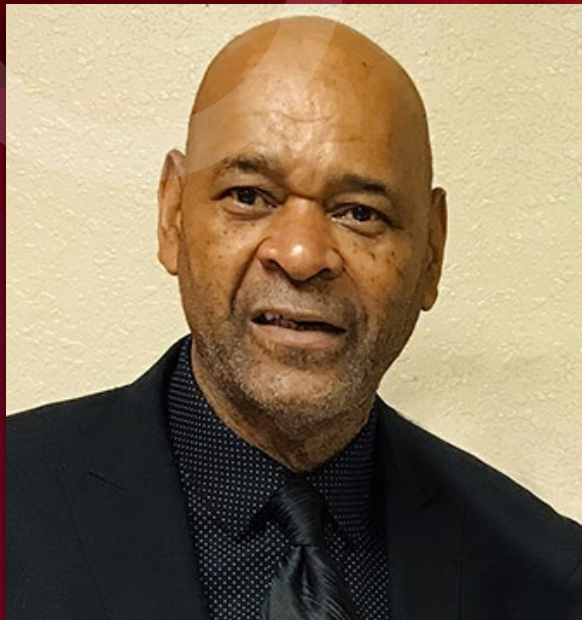

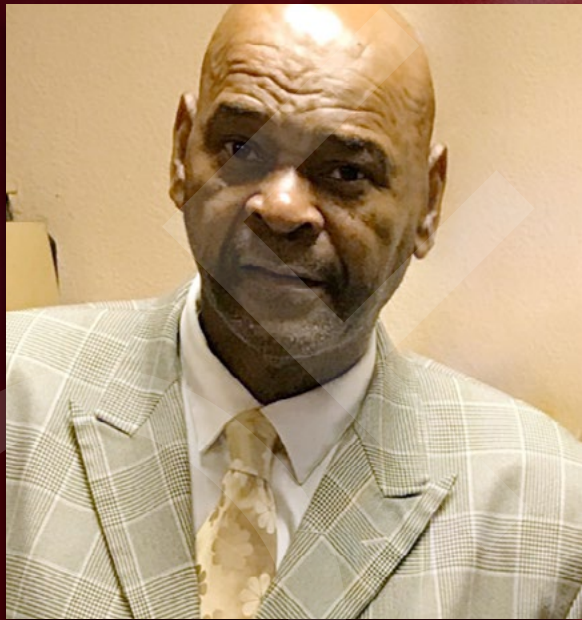

MITCHELL met his beautiful wife at the 7-Eleven on Elm Street. Mitch went home and left her at 711 Brook Street. Pastor Mitchell Davis was also the loving and devoted Pastor of Mt. Carmel Missionary Baptist Church. He will be truly be missed by his congregation.

He walked it...he talked it...and he lived it.

PASTOR Mitchell Davis is preceded in death by his mother, Adell Wooten; father, John Davis; stepfather, Willie "Bo" Wooten; brother, Darrel Cooper, Sr.; and others.

HE is survived by his loving and devoted wife of 46 years, Joyce Davis; daughter, Tarsha Sterling (Bobbie); son, Kevin Coleman (Kami); daughter, Le'Sheena Davis (Freddie); four grandsons; two brothers, Boris Cooper (Coco) and Steven (Yolunda) Davis; four sisters, Nettie Cooper of Houston, Texas, Deloise Tena (James) Davis, Christie Wooten of Crockett, Texas, and Jaunita Davis of Tyler, Texas; special aunts, Aunt Bernice, Aunt Joyce, Aunt Zelma, and Aunt Wanda; special uncles, Uncle Brother Morgan, Uncle Oliver and Uncle Morris; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and special friends.

The Day God Took You Home

A million times I've needs you,
A million times I've cried;
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.
I life I loved you dearly,
In death I love you still;
In my heart you hold a space
No one can ever fill.
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you didn't go alone;
For part of me went with you,
The day God took you home.

YOUR WIFE,
Joyce

In Loving Memory of Our Wonderful Dad

Those special memories of you, Dad,
Will always bring a mile;
If only we could have you back
For just a little while.
Then we could sit and talk again,
Just like we used to do;
You always meant so very much,
and always will do, too.
The fact that you're no longer here
Will always bring us pain;
You're forever in our hearts,
Until we meet again.

YOUR CHILDREN,
Tarsha, Kevin Et Le' Sheena
