

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path god laid for me.
I took his hand when i heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that place at close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things i too will miss.

Be not burdened with time of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and smile with me
God wanted me now...

He set me free.

Life Reflections

Christopher Deval Bowser II, known to family as “Lil Chris,” was born July 30, 1997, to Ramona Norris and Christopher Bowser Sr. in Austin, Texas. On May 3rd of 2021, our heavenly father called him home.

Chris was preceded in death by his maternal grandfather, Robert Norris, and his maternal great grandmother, Willie Mae Brown.

Chris accepted Christ at a young age, being baptized by Pastor Margaret Sims. He received his education through the Austin Independent School District.

Chris lived his life to the fullest, he was a new father and was looking forward to watching his daughter and son grow. Chris was funny and very playful; he loved to make people laugh. He also loved to wrestle with his sister as well as other family members. Chris had a one-of-a-kind smile that would light up a room and turn your frown upside down. He enjoyed listening to music and spending time with his friends.

Christopher is survived by his parents, Ramona Norris and Christopher Bowser Sr.; two beloved children, Knowledge Bowser (son) and Za’Riyah Bowser (daughter); his older sister, Crishauna “Crissy” Bowser; sister, Mia Bowser; brother, Darius Bowser; maternal grandmother, Linda Norris; paternal grandmother, Barbara Vanbrackle; paternal grandfather, Clarence Wilson; his “ride or die” aunt, Lashanya “Ann” Brown; as well as a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and friends.
