"For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. Life Story

Mrs. Agnes Rodell Johnson Alley was born to Mr. and Mrs. G.B. & Mary Johnson on August 9, 1924, in McLennan County.

She confessed a hope in Christ at an early age. She was an active and faithful member of Marshall Chapel Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Frank Montgomery. She sang in the choir, worked in the Mission, and served as the Sunday School Superintendent for 30 years.

She was united in marriage to L.M. Alley, who preceded her in death. To this union, five children were born. Four of them preceded her in death. She was preceded in death by her mother, father, five sisters and four brothers. She was a mother and a friend to all. She was affectionately called Mama, Granny, Grandma, Mama Agnes, Mama Alley, Sis. Agnes and "Buzzard".

If you knew her, you knew that she was passionate about her dominoes. Anytime you walked or drove down Hood Street she was either in the yard or on the porch playing dominoes. She had such a big heart that if she wasn't playing dominoes, she was trying to feed you or give you a little "token". She also loved her some "dum dums" lollipops and was always trying to give you one. As she got up in age, her favorite saying was "Baby, just tell me what to do" and "Knowing better is doing better."

She leaves to cherish her memories: one son, Royce Charles Alley (Waco); one sister, Clotil Young (Dallas); two sister-in-laws; nine grandchildren, Latricia "Shaney" Bradshaw, Venus Alley, Tynetta "Nookey" Hamilton, Ochamon "Bubba" Maxwell, Astin "Stro" Alley, Casi Alley, Chanell Myiesha Martel-Alley, Larry "Pooh Pooh" Martel-Alley, and Terriell "T.J." Adams; twenty-six great-grandchildren, eight great-great-grandchildren, along with a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives.

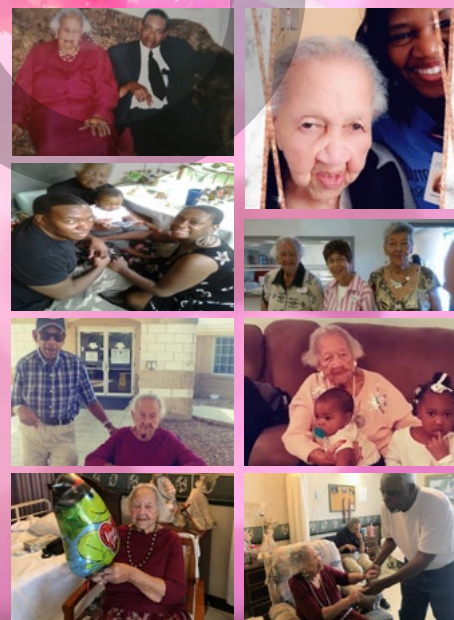

Weep Not For Me

Author Unknown

Weep not for me though I have gone
Into that gentle night
Grieve if you will, but not for long
Upon my soul's sweet fight
I am at peace, my soul's at rest
There is no need for tears
For with your love I was so blessed
For all those many years
There is no pain, I suffer not
The fear is now all gone
Put now these things out of your thoughts
In your memory I live on
Remember not my fight for breath
Remember not the strife
Please do not dwell upon my death
But celebrate my life
