JOHN 5:28, 29

"Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment."

REVELATION 21:4

"And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

I DREAM A WORLD

I dream a world where God's Kingdom rules. Where people are perfect and all animals are cool. A world where wickedness is eliminated, sickness is terminated, and death is no longer Satan's tool. A world when love ones return while truth in our heart burn. Natural disasters become depleted and Jesus campaign is completed. A world where every citizen rejoice and all praise Jehovah with one voice. I dream an Earth where no on is blue and now I pray and wait for my dream to come true.

LIFE REFLECTIONS

Andrew "Babro" Roberson was born October 13, 1956, in Saint Louis, Missouri, to Alma Mae Marshall and Sydney (Sadie) Roberson. He was the youngest brother of seven at the time hence the nickname "Babro". He enjoyed music, flavorful food, and a good cowboy movie. Babro readily acknowledged the existence of a Supreme Being and sought ways to be familiar with Him. He was employed in various fields from slaughter houses to truck driving but we all know him as a hustler always on the go. In 2008, a life changing event, a car accident, presented Babro with a new challenge. Since then he grew in knowledge, patience, strength and love that can never be diminished. He was a brother, cousin, nephew, uncle, friend, Pa-pa, GrandDaddy and Daddy to those who loved him the most.

Barbo is preceeded in death by his parents and siblings Tommy Lee, Leon, Sidney, Peggy, Debra, and Lena.

Babro is Survived by his siblings George (Diane), Nancy, Elizabeth, and Anthony.

He has also left behind children and grandchildren to cherish memories.
