Friends & Family

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little—but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me—but let me go

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.

Life Reflections

Willie Earl Miller was born February 17th, 1950 in Senatobia, Mississippi to Willie Earl Cook and Bernice Miller.

Affectionately known as "Will Earl" was the first born of three children to Bernice Miller. Will Earl was educated in the Senatobia school district. He worked for the Wellston school district (St. Louis, MO.) for many years.

Will Earl was a proud father, son, brother, and uncle who love his family unconditionally. He was always the one who came running to a call for help and compassionately always showed empathy to others.

He was a happy, energetic free spirit and hard worker all his life.

Will Earl Miller is preceded in death by his father Willie Earl Cook, uncle Haywood Miller, and two aunts Rosa Lee Robinson and Nettie Mae Jones.

He leaves to cherish his memories his mother Bernice Sesson, two daughters: Keisha Hall (Homestead, Florida) and Lanne Miller, Three granddaughters: Mylaysia, Cierra and Crystal, Three grandsons: Fudial, Michael, and Kingston, Two sisters: Ruby Bledsoe and Mary Bobo, one aunt: Minnie Lou Miller, three nieces: Ebony Bledsoe Gross, Erica Bobo Petty, and Lawanda Bobo, Two nephews: Terry Bledsoe and Eric Bobo, five great nephews, four great nieces and a host of cousin other relatives and friends.
