

Loving Memories

LOVING TRIBUTES

I never believed in love at first sight until I met you. I was captivated by that big smile. We were inseparable. We shared a lot of great memories and I will always be grateful for the time we had with each other. Now I have to learn how to live without my best friend and soul mate. My heart is truly broken. God wanted His angel back. Until we meet again...

YOUR LOVING WIFE AND BEST FRIEND, SHARON

You went away so suddenly. We did not say goodbye. But brothers can never be parted. Precious memories never die.

LOVE, ED

MY BIG BROTHER,

When I got the phone call my world stopped and I began to think back to when we were kids growing up on Beverly Place, doing all the mischievous things we would do. There never was a boring moment between you, me, and Eddie Beck. We had so much fun from playing basketball sometimes all night to just hanging out at Visitation Park. I find myself, the older I have gotten, really appreciating a big brother such as yourself, from starting a job as a teenager and keeping it for over 20 years, to buying your first home at a young age. These were all great accomplishments that gave your younger brothers a blueprint to follow, that we are still following to this day. You may be gone from us in the physical, but you will always be my BIG BROTHER. May you have eternal peace and I pray one day we meet again.

YOUR LITTLE BROTHER, RILEY

Life Reflections

LAMONT ANTHONY SHELTON was born to Theodore Coleman and Polly Ann Shelton on October 16, 1964 in St. Louis, Missouri. His mother and father preceded him in death.

He received his education in the St. Louis Public School System and graduated from Soldan High School where he took up wrestling all 4 years. From there, he went to build his skill set with Job Corp. He proudly and diligently worked with Talayna's Italian Restaurant for 20 years. He went on to work 20 more years at ADM Milling. Lamont was also a decorated kickboxer and earned his brown belt.

Lamont was united in holy matrimony to Sharon Taylor on June 25, 2003. To this union, he gained a stepdaughter, Nikkia (Michael) Bradford. He was also a proud dog poppa to Sinatra.

Lamont will be greatly missed by all that knew him. He leaves to cherish his memories: two loving sisters, Anita Hillman and Nancy Shelton; two loving brothers, Riley (Valencia) Shelton, Edward (Sacoyya) Beck; and a host of in-laws, nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews.

Lamont will always be remembered as a poppa, brother, uncle and friend. Lamont was immensely proud of his family and leaves behind nothing but beautiful memories.

HE TOUCHED THE LIVES OF EVERYONE HE MET WITH HIS

jovial spirit,

big heart

and infectious laugh.
