

The Twenty-Third
Psalm

The LORD is my shepherd,

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie
down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

“Celebrating A Life Remembered”

Millicent Lucile Johnson was born January 21, 1928, in Willmar, Minnesota, the daughter of George and Inga (Lofthus) Forsberg. She grew up and began her education in the Willmar area. At age 13, she moved with her aunts to California, where she continued her education. While living in California, she worked as a nanny and housekeeper. She later returned to the Willmar area. While working at John's Supper Club, she met Harold A. Johnson and they later married on November 19, 1949 in St. Paul. They lived and farmed in the Svea community for many years. Millicent raised their children on the farm and cooked meals for the farmhands. After retiring from farming, they moved to Westview Village in Willmar.

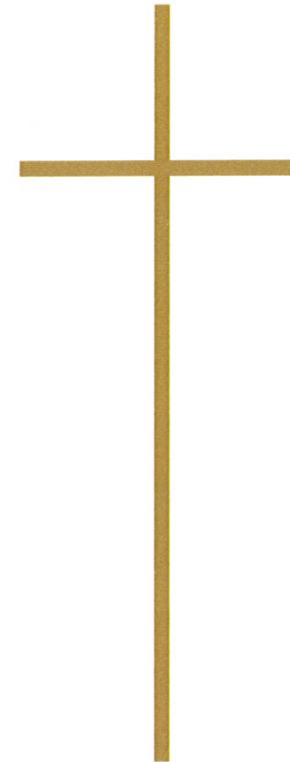

She was a member of Svea Lutheran Church. She enjoyed crocheting and donated many blankets to women and babies. She also enjoyed baking, canning, and playing cards and board games, especially dominos, cribbage, and Scrabble. She was a kind, loving and generous person, who always put others before herself.

Millicent died Tuesday evening, October 9, at Bethesda Grand Nursing Home in Willmar at the age of 90.

She is survived by four children: Rebecca Johnson of Lake Lillian, MN, Deborah Johnson of Willmar, MN, Barbara (and Wayne) Stomberg of Renville, MN, and Douglas (and Teresa) Johnson of Willmar, MN; four grandchildren: Stephanie (and Justin) Lewis of Sartell, MN, Michelle Stomberg (and special friend Robenson Regis) of Sioux Falls, SD, Matthew Johnson of Willmar, MN, and Benjamin Johnson of Willmar, MN; two great-grandchildren: Jack Lewis and Hayden Lewis; a sister: Esther (and Gary) Ellis of Dallas, OR; several nieces and nephews; and other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband: Harold Johnson in 2007; a son: David Johnson in 2009; a daughter: Jennifer Johnson in 2017; four brothers: Kenneth, George, Arnold, and Donovan; and six sisters: Christine, Irene, Doris, Marguerite, Kay, and Jackie.

The interment will be in the church cemetery. Following the service at the grave, all relatives and friends are invited to return to the church for lunch and a time of fellowship. Those not going to the cemetery may go directly downstairs to the fellowship hall, be served their lunch and wait for the return of the family.
