Although your heart may be broke,

There's no need to weep for me.

I'm in a wonderful place now,

Where I'm happy and carefree.

I had to go, but I've left behind Good memories to comfort you. Concentrate on the best times we had, And try not to feel so sad.

For on day we'll be together again,

To laugh and sing and play.

You'll be so glad to see me again,

It will seem I was gone just one day.

To My Husband, Mother, Father,

Pastor, Brothers, Sister,

Family and Friends

In Loving Memory of my "Special Wife"

The day you left and gained your wings, my heart just broke in two I wish you could have stayed with me, but Heaven needed you

You left me with the memories, and I love you dearly still No matter how much time goes by, you know I always will

You were a very special person, with kindness in your heart And the love we had together, grows stronger now we're apart

I know I cannot bring you back, although I wish it everyday
But a piece of me went with you, the day you went away.

Your darling husband, Ray Pugh

To My Daughter

On April 13th, God looked around his garden and he noticed an empty space,

He then looked down upon his Earth, and he noticed Lavida's tired face,

He put his loving arms around her and pulled her to rest, God's garden must be beautiful y'all, he always picks the best.

Now I know the family chain has been broken and the links are out of our hands, but just as has God's picks us one by one, surely that chain will link again.

Love always, Daddy

Remembering the Life of Lavida Learnetta Pugh (Andrews)

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted." Matthew 5:4

On Tuesday, April 13, 2020, about 4:40 in the evening. God came after preparing a place for our loved one, Mrs. Lavida Learnetta Pugh (Andrews) and receive her unto Himself.

Mrs. Lavida Learnetta Pugh was born on February 13, 1977 to Mr. Tony Robinson and Mrs. Brenda L. Logan (Andrews).

Mrs. Lavida L. Pugh grew up with her family whom she loved very much. At an early age, Lavida became ill, but she did not let that discourage her. Lavida continued her education at Laurel City Schools and became ill once more. Still, she continued her education and graduated from R.H. Watkins High School. Lavida furthered her studies at Jones Junior College.

Lavida confessed her love for Christ and joined Providence Baptist Church where she sang in the children choir. She transferred her membership to Mt. Hebron Baptist Church under the leadership of her stepfather, Pastor Arthur F. Logan, Jr., and sang in the choir there also. After becoming an adult, Lavida became a member of Union Baptist Church where her stepfather pastored. Lavida loved taking care of the elderly and they all loved her. She enjoyed taking them to doctor visits, grocery shopping, and even to church. She will be missed by many.

Lavida was joined in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Ray Pugh. God blessed their union until her death. Lavida was preceded in death by her maternal grandfather, Mr. John E. Andrews; maternal grandmother, Mrs. Johnnie Mae Andrews; paternal grandfather, Mr. Joe Robinson; paternal grandmother, Rachael Robinson; two uncles: Mitchell Andrews and Michael E. Andrews; three aunts: Olivia J. McGee, Shelia Ann Andrews, Lora Andrews; and her mother-in-law, Sarah Lee Pugh.

Lavida leaves to cherish her memories her husband, Mr. Ray Pugh of Laurel, MS; her father, Mr. Tony Robinson; her mother, Mrs. Brenda L. Logan; her stepfather, Pastor Arthur F. Logan, Jr.; her god-father, Mr. James E. Townsend; all from Laurel, MS; her father-in-law, L.C. Pugh, from Heidelburg, MS; three brothers: Dennis Ray (Marcella) Andrews of Tallahassee, FL., Carlos N. (Jamilah) Andrews of Goodman, MS, Anthonio (Calea) Robinson of Bay Springs, MS; one sister Atonia K. Andrews Bender from Laurel, MS; a special aunt, Ernetta Andrews Bunch of Laurel, MS; five uncles, Joe Robinson of Laurel, MS; Hershell (Redonna) Parker of Waterloo, IA, Ray Charles (Kay) Andrews of Fort Worth, TX, Todd Andrews and Kenneth Andrews, both of Laurel, MS; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

A Letter from Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not here to see,

If the sun should rise and find your eyes, filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, While thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,

And each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, I'm right there in your heart!

I love you always Mom, Dennis Ray, Atonia, & Carlos!
