The family wish to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to them during this hour of bereavement. May God Bless and Keep You!

The Family

When I am gone, release me, let me go. I know it may be hard, but I have so many things to see and do. You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears. Be happy that we had so many years to share. I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave to me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown. But now it's time I travel on alone. So grieve a while for me, if you must grieve. Then let grief be comforted by God's trust. It's only for a while that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart. I won't be far away for life goes on. So if you need me, call and I will come. Even though you can't see or touch me, I will be near. Remember all my love is around you soft and clear. And when you come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and 'I'll Welcome you Home'.

Life and Times...

Mr. O'Neal Myrick, Sr., was born on January 14, 1950 in Graceville, Florida to Andrew and Bonnie C. Myrick.

O'Neal was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Cynthia Myrick; a daughter, Carrie Myrick and two brothers: Donnell Myrick and Odell McCarty.

He is survived by his children: O'Neal Myrick, Jr., Oda Lee Myrick, Sonja Myrick all of Graceville, Florida, Stacey Watford (Emanuel) of Jacksonville, Florida, Niekiesha Granger (Timmy) of Pansey, Alabama and Danielle Ward of Gordon, Alabama; his significant other, Willie Mae Ward of Gordon, Alabama; his sister: Lillie M. Giles of Chipley, Florida; brothers: Eddie Myrick, Homer Myrick of Graceville, Florida, Charles Myrick (Irene) and James Myrick (Etta) all of Saint Petersburg, Florida; sister-in-law: Betty Joyce Myrick of St. Petersburg, Florida; seventeen grandchildren; nineteen great grandchildren; numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends, including his very special friend, James Fowler (Dot) of Graceville, Florida and Willie (Jr.) Ward of Dothan, Alabama.

O'Neal was a family oriented person. He spent countless hours nurturing, loving and caring for his family, friends and anyone who came in contact with him. O'Neal loved gathering with family, just as much as he loved eating, especially ice cream. Most of his days were spent in a field where greens and numerous other fruits and vegetables wasn't too far behind. He was a lover, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend, but most importantly he was him.

To know him was to love him and to love him was a blessing.

O'Neal departed this life on Thursday, January 26, 2023 in Dothan, Alabama.
