

Miss Me But Let Me Go

Attributed to Edgar A. Guest

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little—but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me—but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss Me—But Let me Go.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Mr. Romel Cody was born July 12, 1956 to the late
Connie B. and Jessie Pearl Taylor Cody.

He accepted Christ into his life and was a member
Union Hill Missionary Baptist Church.

Romel served his country in the United States Army and was honorably discharged. He went on to gain employment with Perdue-Wayne Farms for many years.

Romel was a person who never met a stranger. He had a giving and forgiving heart, who helped anyone in need.

He is survived by his wife, Mildred Cody; children:
Tiffany Brown, Shunta Brown (LaToya), Demetris Brown and
Chase Brown (Melissa); he is also survived by his sisters, brothers, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
