

"Hello Dahlin"

Thank You

The family of Sister Dollie Mae Smith Douglas extends sincere thanks and gratitude for your thoughtful deeds, comforting expressions of love and concern that were extended to us during our time of difficulty and loss. Thanks to the neighborhood and churches for reaching beyond the break in the circle to hold us up on every leaning side. Special thanks to the Panama City Nursing Center, Silvercrest Nursing and Rehabilitation, Covenant Hospice, Elizabeth Ponds, Elizabeth Booker Lee, Trinisha Lee Purifoy and the Saint John Missionary Baptist Church Family. Please continue to pray for us as we adapt to this new normal and acceptance of God's will.

Sister Dollie Mae Smith Douglas a woman of Purpose, not Perfection, was born One Hundred and Two years ago on November 2, 1916 to Charlie Sr. and Arlena Johnson Smith in Slocumb, Alabama.

Sister Douglas believe and demonstrated that being a Proverbs 31 Woman wasn't about being perfect. It's about living life with purpose. She believe that God's Word elevates the role of women and that Proverbs 31 is applicable to our modern lives. She understood what it's like to dream of the perfect life. She also knew what it was like to always be striving for something that seems so elusive. She lived by one of her favorite song, "Sending Up My Timber" everyday. This she did without hesitation.

Sister Douglas grew up in a Christian home, where loved was shown everyday. She was joined into Holy Matrimony to Strauss Douglas and together they showed their love as one. This union was blessed with a beautiful baby girl, Mattye Sue, who also learned the way of giving and showing love.

Sister Douglas was a strong, determined and loyal servant of God. She served her church, Saint John Missionary Baptist Church, locally, state and nationally in many ministries.

Sister Douglas served has President of the Progressive of West Florida District Association; Devotional Leader for Progressive Mission and Education Senior Women Ministry, Saint John Missionary Baptist Church Senior Mission, member of Saint John Missionary Baptist Church Senior Choir and was very active in many other ministries in her church and the community. She was also member of Queen Esther Wise No. 89, Order of the Eastern Star.

She is survived by one sister, Martha Ford of Camden, New Jersey; her son-in-law: Donald J. Pittman of Graceville, Florida and a great-grandson: David of Jacksonville, Florida; numerous great-great grandchildren, other relatives, church and community family and friends.
