"A Pittman Service Makes the Difference"

Gloria (Armstrong) Snell

My beloved sister, at this moment in time, 5:45 am, I find myself awake thinking of you.

*I'm thinking of how much you're already missed,
I'm thinking of all the fun and crazy things we use to do.
I'm thinking of all the fun we had together in the very short time I knew you
I'm thinking of all the things...that made you....you!!
When we first met, our godly spirits clicked...something that happens only once in a lifetime.
And that is only one reason you truly will be missed.
I'm thinking of how much you will be missed not only from my daily life,
But from my reasonable service to the Lord day as well.
I'm thinking of how you would arrive at church early, making sure everything was in its place
And greeting all who entered with a big and loving smile always on your face.
No matter what you had been through or whatever had come your way during the week that passed...
You would tell or give a testimony of the goodness of the Lord His love never fails...
You would give an encouraging word to all...that only you could tell.
And now my beloved sister, I must say it's been real.
We had a blast, we cried, we laughed, we shared disappointments, Encouragements, heartaches, joy and pain,
But nothing compares to what we're all feeling now that you're no longer here.
Certainly nothing in this life will ever be the same.*

*Your sister-in-Christ
Pastor Emma Watford
AKA: Affectionately as you called me,
"Pastor"*
