Going Up Yonder

The 23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadows of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Acknowledgements

The family of Arthur W. Jordan, Jr. wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to us during this hour of bereavement. A special thanks to Bishop David Green and Faith Fellowship Church along with the staff of Butler County Hospice and nurse Kathy. May God continue to bestow his blessings on each of you. A very special thank you to our cousin, Donald Jordan and his staff for their professionalism rendered as we entrusted you with the care of our beloved, Arthur W. Jordan, Jr.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch
If my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
