

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray,
If so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.

Special thanks to Big Brothers of America as well as all of his dearest teachers and friends who encouraged and supported him.

In lieu of flowers contributions can be made to the Robert Smith and Eliza Haynes Smith Family Foundation at DayAir Credit Union in care of Jairemiah Allen Glenn. The contributions will be used toward a scholarship in Jairemiah's name carry out his spirit and legacy.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand
The angel said my place was ready in Heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love
But when I walked through Heaven's Gates, I felt so much at home,
For God looked down, smiled at me, and told me, Welcome home
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one, I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun of happy memories that I leave behind when day is done.
