

Do Not Stand At My Grave and Weep

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sun on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there; I did not die.

Obituary

Stephanie Anthony was born on January 16, 1976 to Helen Frye and Donald Anthony. She departed this earthly life on April 25, 2023.

Stephanie contracted spinal meningitis at a very young age, and she fought through various medical issues that made her a strong and independent woman. Stephanie attended Trotwood Madison schools.

Stephanie had one older sister on her mother's side, Rhonda, and two nephews, five nieces, and she was the great aunt to 16 of Rhonda's grandkids. On her father's side, she had a younger sister, Chelcy, and two more nephews. Stephanie was the beloved mother to four children. Markys, Devante, Shania and Justin. She had one granddaughter, five grandsons and two more grandsons on the way!

Stephanie had no filter and said what was on her mind. If she liked you or didn't, you knew no doubt about it. Stephanie was a great cook and loved her family. Stephanie suffered from diabetes and a stroke that left her paralyzed on her left side, but she kept on and never let any of those issues stop her! Stephanie left so many of us, her children, grandchildren, mother, sisters and a host of aunts and uncles, nieces and nephews who love her and will miss her.
