Obituary

Patricia Ann (Moss) King, 78 years of age, passed on Sunday, December 22nd, 2019 at Mt. Airy Gardens Rehabilitation and Nursing Center. Pat was born May 6th, 1941 in Hamilton, Ohio to the late Willie Burns Moss and his wife, Rosalie (Washington) Moss. Pat was educated in the Hamilton City School System in Hamilton, Ohio. Pat professed her life to Christ at an early age.

Pat was a quiet spirit; she always had a smile on her face. She loved her perfume, jewelry and lipstick. Prior to her health failing, Patricia loved the outdoors and people. She would often take long strolls throughout the city of Hamilton. Pat was a loving and dutiful wife to the late O.C. King. She was a mother, grandmother, daughter, sister and aunt.

Pat leaves to cherish her loving memory her Mother; Mrs. Rosalie Moss, sister Metro Moss both of Hamilton, Ohio; her two daughters, Eloise Moss of Cincinnati, Ohio and Mrs. Stephanie Moss Smith of Ashtabula, Ohio; and her grand-children of Ashtabula, Ohio; and one sister-in-law, Mrs. Viola (King) Pitts of Hawkinsville, Georgia.

Pat went to join her husband, O.C. King; daughter Jan; son Nicholas; father Willie Burns Moss; three sisters: Candy, Joyce, and Artina; and three brothers, Willie, Michael, and Garnett.; three sister-in-laws, Sarah King, Minnie (King) Crowe, and Mariah (King) McBurse and a “very special and dedicated niece”, the late Clara “Nora” Prater.
