

We Promised/ Lost on Memory Lane

By Jonetta White

Meet me at the end of the rainbow
In the meadow where hope still grows
In the grove where love never dies
Where the earth touches the sky

I'll be waiting by the Well of Futures Untold
Picking a few options for how our story unfolds
We can go anywhere you'd like to go
All except Memory Lane

Maybe we can stop by the Wishing Well
I will make a wish we never say farewell
And then we can visit the Land of Dreams
Where our imaginings become real things

And I will dream that we never part
That we walk on the moon
That we capture the stars
That we travel to galaxies near and far
Going everywhere except Memory Lane

Because that's the place people go
When they have no future
With the ones they love most
When they have someone they now just see in their minds
And they won't share new adventures for a really long time

But that just can't be us, not you and me
We'll be together for eternity
Dancing, laughing, and eating clouds
Unearthing new treasures that were once unfound

So meet me at the end of the rainbow
We promised to steal back our time
We swore we'd never let our love die
We said together we'd touch the sky

Hey Dad! Dad! Where are you?
Oh no, how did I lose you?
Dad, help! Find me! I'm lost too!

Remember how we used to play hide-and-seek
But I'd get lost and scared
Oh, how I'd weep
Until I turned around and you were there
Saying wherever I am, you'll always be as w--- well

Oh no, Dad
I know where I am
I'm lost on Memory Lane

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece,
If so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words
As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.

Jonathon “Boe” White

Jonathon "Boe" William White, age 61, passed on April 11, 2022 at Miami Valley Hospital with his beloved family by his side.

Jonathon was born in Dayton, OH on June 1, 1960. When he met the love of his life, Loretta White (née Tooson), he boldly proclaimed she would be his wife. He was right. Over the 43 years they spent together, he and his wife built a beautiful family and enjoyed a marriage forged in faith and fire and fortified by God. The fruits of their love include his two children, Jonathon William White II (Ericka Mitchell, fiancé) and Jonetta White (G. Christopher Fullman, fiancé) and his three grandchildren, Jadyn, Paityn, and Dezmyrn White.

Although his legacy is rich and storied, one key theme of his life is that God's love will always follow and shield you no matter where you are. With more than 20 years of sobriety, he was a proud member of the West Dayton Club and Dayton Fellowship Club. He served as a sponsor to many and an example to all that you should “keep coming back; it works if you work it.”

Jonathon was a valiant champion for the rights and advancement of all people in his personal and professional lives. He began his career as a construction laborer and member of Laborers' Local 1410 in 1979. Later, Jonathon earned a role as Sergeant at Arms for the Local 1410 and ultimately retired from Laborers' District Eight Regional Organizing Committee (DEROC) where he worked as a union organizer. Upon his retirement, Jonathon and his wife co-founded a construction company, White & White Construction, LLC, which created stable job opportunities for all kinds of people, especially minorities and those in need of a second chance at life. Furthermore, Jonathon was an active member of the NAACP and a stalwart supporter of the organization's advocacy work as well.

Jonathon often credited his relationship with God as being foundational to his success in his sobriety, career, entrepreneurial endeavors, and more, and he was a committed member of Power for Life Ministries International based in Byron, GA under the leadership of Apostle Jerry and Prophetess Dr. Cheryl Marks.

Jonathon brought people together; he made them laugh and feel safe to be themselves. He was a vibrant soul, loyal friend, and a fierce protector of those he loved. While his physical form no longer tarries, his legend is immortal.

Jonathon is preceded in death by his father and mother, William and Ruby Lee White (née Davis), and his brothers, Arthur (Betty) Worlds and Willie White, Jr. In addition to his wife, son, daughter, and grandchildren, he is survived by his brother, Jerry (Anita) White; his niece, Natasha White; his nephews, Michael White-Sloan (Monique Byrd, fiancé), Jerry White, Jr., and Corey White; and his great nephews, Terry Talbott, Jr., Terrence Talbott, Michael White-Sloan, Jr., and Mason White-Sloan. He is also survived by six sisters-in-law; three brothers-in-law, and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.
