

Do Not Stand By My Grave

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sun on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there; I did not die.

"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free;
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play;
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah, yes these things I too shall miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free

The Obituary

Ida Pearl Flythe was born on November 29, 1945 in Bailey, North Carolina to the late Albert Wise and Almeta Jones Dowdy. She departed this earthly life and entered the 'Master's Joy' on December 4, 2021. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Waverly and one brother, Sammie Lee Jones.

Ida attended Spaulding High School graduated in 1964. She moved to Baltimore Maryland, where she met and married the late Waverly Flythe. They moved their family to North Carolina and had a wonderful union of 51 years of marriage. Ida was employed by AMP Inc. She later earned a degree in Cosmetology and started her own business. She was also employed as a Director with the Salvation Army, prior to retiring to spend time with her family.

Ida loved spending time with family and friends. She also enjoyed traveling near and far to spend quality time with loved ones.

Ida will be greatly missed by her family and friends. She was a woman of many talents and integrity.

Ida Pearl Flythe leaves to cherish her memories; one son, Ricky Wise (Elizabeth) of Clayton, North Carolina; two daughters, April Wise Barnes (Rudolph) of Mt. Olive, North Carolina and Ronda Flythe of Raleigh, North Carolina; three grandchildren, Ryan Wise, Tiesha Wise and Nechelle Wise; four great grandchildren, Zamire Wise, Zavion Wise, Josiah Wise, and Parker Mirai Blue; one sister, Mary Jones of Bailey, North Carolina; one brother, Franklin Jones (Gertrude) of Bailey, North Carolina, and a host of other relatives and friends.
