CRY NOT FOR ME

*Cry not for me, this glorious day, for on earth I wasn't meant to stay.
I've lived my life here on earth, in Glory I will no longer hurt.
Cry not for me, my family, my friend, for this is the beginning, not the end.
On the other side, somewhere in Glory, I'll tell the Master my life's story.
Cry not for me, wipe away the tears, let God chase away the fears.
For a man born of woman will surely die, our is to accept, not question why.
Cry not for me, as you leave today, take some time to quietly pray.
Ask God to take away the pain and bring a smile to your face again.
Cry not for me, this race I've run, my real life in Glory has now begun.
Once again, I'll see my mother, and rejoice also with my father.
Cry not for me, as I am gone, but my spirit will always live on.
Let God come into your heart today, for on earth, we aren't meant to stay.*
