“Do Not Stand At My Grave and Weep”

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.

(Mary Elizabeth Frye 1932)

The Reflections

Walter Russell Bridges “Pee Wee”, son of the late Walter Hudson and Vinea Sanders Bridges, was born on January 23, 1950.

“Pee Wee,” as he was affectionately known by family and friends, attended J. W. Ligon Junior/Senior High.

Walter was blessed with two sons and a daughter. He will be missed in the hearts and lives of his children, other family, and the lives of those he touched.

Walter was a diligent worker. He was employed over the years with the Wake County School System, Wake Medical Center, Honeycutt Transmission Auto Repair and Facility Management.

Walter was preceded in death by his son, Michael Christopher Bridges. On April 20, 2020, the Lord called Walter home from labour to reward to once again be with his loved ones that have gone on before.

Walter Russell Bridges “Pee Wee” leaves to cherish his memories and mourn his passing; his children, Theresa M. Smith (Isaac Jr.) of Madison, AL; son, Walter Russell Bridges, Jr. (Vonetta) of Baltimore, MD; nine grandchildren; siblings, Charles Wesley Bridges, Leon Bridges, Billy Ray Bridges (Tammy) Bridges, Alice B. Harris and Timothy Bridges, all of Raleigh; and a host of other relatives and friends.
