

HOME at LAST

God saw you were getting weary,
so, He did what was best
He came and stood beside you,
and whispered, "Come and Rest."

You gave no one a last farewell,
not even a goodbye.
You were gone before we knew it,
God knew the reason why.

God saw the road was getting rough,
the hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed those loving eyes,
and whispered "Peace Be Thine."

The weary hours, the day of pain,
the sleepless nights are past.
The ever striving worn out frame,
has found "Sweet Rest At Last."

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.
