

Floral Bearers
Family

Pall Bearers
Family

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired
When a cure was not to be.
So He wrapped His arms around you
And whispered, "Come unto me."
You didn't deserve what you went through
And so He gave you rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He only takes the best.
So when I saw you sleeping
So Peaceful and free from pain
I could not wish you to come back
To suffer all that again.

Acknowledgments

It is during this difficult time that we are reminded how much our family and friends mean to us. We appreciate all the many deeds of kindness shown. You will always be in our prayers.
-The Family

Professional Services Entrusted to:

Steven L. Lyons Funeral Home
1515 New Bern Ave.
Raleigh, NC 27610
919.831.2596

A CELEBRATION OF

Life

Ann Nora Hall

May 13, 1933 – May 3, 2020

Service: May 8, 2020

1:00 p.m.

Pastor James P. Perkins, Officiating

Elder Leon Byrd, Eulogist

A Legacy of Life

Ann Nora Salters Hall was born on May 13, 1933 in Satillo, Mississippi, to the late Eula and Plum Salters. She was raised in Tupelo, Mississippi. She was called to her eternal rest on Saturday, May 2, 2020.

Ann Nora met, and later married Willie James Hall on November 13, 1953. They moved from Mississippi to New York City in 1954. They had four children: two girls and two boys. She was a member of Jefferson Park United Methodist Church in New York City for over twenty years. While a member there, she served on the Choir, Pastor's Aide and the Missionary Board. She and her husband later moved to Amityville, NY in 1984, where she became a member of Grace Community Church, Amityville, NY under the leadership of Pastor Robert L. Burgess.

Ann Nora was known by many names. Some called her Ann Nora, Annie, Eleanor and Mother Hall. She responded to them all. That was her nature. Ann loved the Lord and no matter where she moved to, the first thing she did was locate a church where she would be able to worship her God. She had a quiet and kind spirit. She would draw people to her wherever she went. She was a lot of fun to be around. She had a witty sense of humor and could think fast on her feet.

Annie (as affectionally called) loved playing board games. She was a champion when it came to playing checkers. She was hard to beat and got great pleasure in beating her opponent. She loved reading her Bible and the Sunday newspaper. She was the world's best bargain hunter. She loved flowers and gardening. Quilting was her favorite hobby. She loved her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and they bought her great joy whenever they were around.

Annie was employed by the Amityville, NY Public School System, and also worked with Grumman Aerospace in Bethpage, NY from which she and her husband retired. After her retirement they relocated to Battle Creek, MI, then back to her hometown of Belden, Mississippi, where she attended Hopewell Missionary Baptist Church, under the leadership of Pastor Curtis McKinney. They lived there until her husband became ill and passed. Upon the request of her daughter, she relocated to Raleigh, NC where she became a member of Victory Tabernacle Church, under the leadership of Pastor James P. Perkins.

Annie was preceded in death by her husband, Willie James Hall; four sisters, Alberta Agnew, Mamie Lee Ramsey, Charlene Collins and Lenora McBride; two brothers, Elihue and Paul Salters.

Annie leaves to cherish her loving memories: two daughters, Debra (the late James) Corder and Sharon (Leon) Byrd, both of Raleigh, NC; two sons, Willie James Hall, Jr. of New York and Tilman (Amanda) Hall of Mississippi; four grandchildren, Kareem (Shemar) Byrd, Jermaine (Crystal) Byrd, Sherron (Gabriel) Crudup and Nyasha Hall; five great grandchildren, Kareem Byrd, Jr., Jael Byrd, Bella Byrd, Baylie Byrd and Jaxon Byrd; one brother, James Salters of Battle Creek, MI; two sisters-in-law, Elaine Hall and Elizabeth Hall of NY; one brother-in-law, Troy Cannon of NY; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Order of Service

Musical Prelude

Processional.....Clergy & Family

Musical Selection.....Sister Anitra Ollison

Invocation.....Pastor James P. Perkins

Scripture Readings:

Old Testament.....Deacon Calvin Morrison

New Testament.....Dr. Johnny Crudup

Prayer of Comfort.....Elder Marvin Sanders

Musical Selection.....Sister Anitra Ollison

Reflections

Acknowledgments/Obituary/Resolution.....Dr. Virginia B. McGill

Musical Selection.....Sister Anitra Ollison

Eulogy.....Elder Leon Byrd

Recessional

Interment

Maplewood Cemetery
Clayton, North Carolina

Please turn on flashers and headlights en route to the cemetery.