

A CELEBRATION OF LIFE

He Only Takes the Best

God saw you getting tired,
And a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around you and whispered "Come to Me."
With tearful eyes we watched you,
and saw you pass away.
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
Your golden heart stopped beating,
Your hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.

Life's Reflections

Ms. Peggy Clark Caudle, born January 10, 1955, was one of seventeen children blessed through the union of the late William Matthew Clark, Sr. and Annie Bell Wright Clark. She departed this life on August 31, 2020 at UNC Hospital in Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

She was employed in the production field for several years and was well known throughout the community. Peggy had a kind, sweet and loving spirit and a genuine love in her heart for everyone. She never met a stranger and we cannot forget to mention that she gave the best hugs ever!

Peggy found great joy in cooking and was well known for her potato salad and her famous giblet gravy at Thanksgiving. She also enjoyed working in the yard. But one of her greatest joys was the special bond and time she shared with daughter Mel and grandchildren Sterlicia and Miracle. Her other great joy was singing praises unto God and sharing His message through song. She was an anointed vocalist and her angelic voice was heard throughout the community – singing with various churches and groups. Her first love was signing with the Clark Sisters, comprised of her daughter Mel and her sisters. She also sang with B.T. Green and the Christian Harmonettes and occasionally filled in with the Kings of Harmony of Hillsborough. But now she has been elevated to the Heavenly Choir, singing amongst the angels.

Peggy was very committed to family and was definitely a peacemaker within the family circle. The Clark Family enjoyed a close knit bond and would do anything for one another. Peggy shared a very special and unique relationship with baby sister Lisa, who was right there by her side and became a caregiver when her health began to decline. Though the family circle has once again been broken, it yet remains strong.

She was preceded in death by brothers – Michael Anthony Clark, Sr., Thomas Edward Clark, Chaisney Clark, Sr., William Matthew Clark, Jr., and sister – Julia Mae Cates (Charlie).

Peggy leaves to cherish precious memories: daughter, Melanie Clark of Mebane; grandchildren, Sterlicia Clark and Miracle Clark both of Mebane; sisters, Gloria Brown of Pinehurst, Beverly Clark of Graham, Cathy Clark of Mebane, and Alisa Torain (Martin) of Hurdle Mills; brothers, Reuben Clark of Mebane, Harvey Clark (Cynthia) of Hillsborough; Dexter Clark (Doretha) of Mebane, Leon Clark of Greensboro, Joe Clark (Margaret) of Hillsborough, Darrell Clark of Raleigh and Alphonso Clark of Hurdle Mills; sisters-in law, Felicia Clark and Hazel Clark; special friend, Ethel Delany of Mebane and a host of other relatives and friends.
