

IN LOVING MEMORY

*My heart will never beat the same
Without you in my life
My smile will never ease the pain
I hold so deep inside
I know that God called you home
So I'll pray for one more time
To hug you tight, to laugh with you
To be right by your side
Please don't forget I love you
With every breath in me
Please don't forget our moments
For those I'll always keep
Please don't forget I'll miss you
And that'll always be
And even though you've gained your wings
You'll always be here with me
Love ~ Jas*

LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

Allen Antonio Cox, a beloved father, brother, and uncle, was born on September 14, 1966 to the late Doris Cox-Chavis. He departed this earthly life on October 31, 2020. He was preceded in death by his daughter, Jasmine Cox and son-in-law, Christopher Bradley.

Allen was educated in the Wake County Public School system, where he was loved and cherished by a host of friends, who eventually became his family. During his junior year, Allen moved to Hartford, CT with his family where he quickly made many friends

Allen enjoyed being with his family, hanging out with his friends. Spending quality time with his daughter and joking with his little big sister, Tammy Cox.

Everyone who knew Allen could always count on him to make them laugh and have a great time.

Allen leaves to cherish his memories: his children, Jeremy Wilder of Greenville, NC, Jasmine Cox (Christopher) of Raleigh, NC and David Cox of Pennsylvania; three grandchildren of Greenville; sister, Tammy Cox and brother, Jermaine Cox, both of Raleigh, NC; aunts, Patricia Dunn (Jessie) and Betty Cox (Charles) all of Raleigh; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. One son, Allen L. Cox who preceded him in death.

*The memories that you leave behind
Are those of Joy, not sorrow
We've had the privilege of knowing you
So we can face tomorrow,
These memories that we have to keep
Will always be a treasure,
They're loving thoughts of your kind deeds
That words can never measure
Those memories can console us
As you enter into rest
We loved you dear with all our hearts
And now God loves you best
~The Family!*
