LATTIE "LAMONT" HUNTER "5"

Lattie "Lamont" Hunter, 33, of Raleigh, North Carolina, entered into eternal rest and peace on Monday, March 22, 2021. He was born on June 9, 1987 to Sharon Harper Stegall and Lattie Harris Hunter in Petersburg, Virginia. He accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at an early age and became a member of Baptist Grove Church in Raleigh, NC.

Lamont was a 2005 Leesville Senior High School graduate; he furthered his education at NC A&T State University. He served in the US Army National Guard.

Lamont was known for his skills on the basketball court and earned the nickname "Five". He traveled all over the nation playing basketball. Lamont played AAU basketball and had the opportunity to play with Carlos Boozer basketball team and Michael Jordan basketball camps during his younger years.

Lamont was known to spend his past time fishing and enjoying the outdoors. He worked alongside of his dad operating their landscape business. He was a young man of many talents.

Lattie was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents Mammie and Zander Harper, Sr.; his paternal grandfather Lattie Harris Hunter and uncle Maurice Harper.

Lattie leaves to cherish his precious memories to his loving and devoted parents, Sharon Stegall and Lattie Harris (Cynthia) Hunter. The apples of his eyes, his loving daughters, Ejada Hunter of Raleigh, NC, Kiata Dorfield of Philadelphia, PA and Brielle Claudio of Raleigh, NC; paternal grandmother, Katie Hunter of Raleigh, NC; sister, Tiffany (Alton) Scott of Zebulon, NC; aunts, Sheila Tamm, Tammy (Michael) Jones and Teresa Hunter all of Raleigh, NC; uncles, Malcolm Harper, Jerome Harper and Stephen Harper all of Petersburg, VA; Zander Harper Jr., Gregory (Deborah) Hunter, Ronnie (Terry) Hunter, Darryl (Tammy) Hunter, and Marcus Hunter all of Raleigh, NC; niece, Camryn D. Scott; nephew, Hunter E. Scott; and a host of cousins, relatives and friends.
