

Her Beautiful Soul

Her soul has ~~but~~ taken flight into
The land where there is no night
She is not dead; she has only gone on
Into a brighter and more wonderful dawn

We saw her fading like a flower
But we could not make her stay

God saw fit to call her

And she has to go away

God saw the road was getting rough

The hills were hard to climb

He gently closed her eyes and

Whispered Peace Be Thine

THE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Thank you All for coming today to this Home Going for my Mom Jeffie Mae Boone. My dad and my Mom "Wasn't scared of Asphalt" they would go visit family and friends thousands of miles away just to see them. I was so blessed to have her in my life as a mother, she always had love for Everyone she met. I'll miss you MAMA! Also would like to thank Rev. Galloway and the first lady for always being there for me. All of the gifts, cards, flowers and support. And I truly would like to thank Steven L. Lyons for his understanding, a Good man. Special thanks to Ms. Linda Richardson for her help. To my Wife, who has had my back for over 37 years. I'll love you

Always, Steve.

LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

Jeffie Mae Boone of Apex, NC departed this life on Tuesday, April 27, 2021 at the age of 92. She was born on August 21, 1928 in Blackhawk, Mississippi to the late Relius and Mary Phillips. She was one of ten children in the family.

Jeffie married Rufus Gaterwood in Mississippi. They had three children. They moved to Chicago, IL and lived there many years until death separated them.

In 1968, Jeffie married Bernard Boone in Chicago, IL and this union brought on a total of eight children. She loved them as her own. They left Chicago in 1973 and moved to Savannah, Georgia to start a church. Then in 1982, they moved to North Carolina.

Jeffie worked as a seamstress most of her life and as a nursing assistant when she wasn't in church. She was ordained as a Minister of the Gospel at Trueway Holiness Church in Apex, NC in 1989. Jeffie loved the Lord and served faithfully in every church she ever joined. She was a faithful member of Abundant Life Church in Raleigh, NC until her health declined.

She leaves to celebrate her life: two sisters, Miller Jackson and Minnie Lee Davis; two sons, Steve Gaterwood (Charlene) and Thomas Boone, one daughter, Linda Boone; grandchildren, Elena, Angela, Alexander, Malcolm, Shae, Thomasina, Venecia, Kenyotta, Jasmine, Amare, and host of great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. She will truly be missed.
