

Do Not Stand At My Grave

Do not stand at my grave and weep

I am not there. I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow.

I am the diamond glints on snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain.

I am the gentle autumn's rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush,

I am the swift uplifting rush

Of quiet birds in circled flight.

I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry;

I am not there. I did not die.

LIFE REFLECTIONS

Mr. Darryl Antwan Autry, Sr., son of the late Charles Bethen and Ruby Fowler was born on August 31, 1980 in Raleigh, NC. He entered into the Master's joy on Friday, May 21, 2021 at the age of 40.

He attended Wake County Public School system; Lucille Hunter Elementary, Carnegie Middle School and graduating in 1999 from Enloe High School.

Darryl was blessed with 5 beautiful children. He was a jack of many trades. He did carpentry, was a chef, a mechanic and a professional mover. He loved music, but he loved his family most of all. All who came into contact with him came to love him. He was very honest and loyal. He was compassionate and loved being with his children and bringing his family together.

Mr. Darryl Antwan Autry, Sr., leaves to cherish his precious memories and mourn his passing: mother, Ruby Fowler (Jerry); sons, Darryl A. Autry Jr. and Kayden P. Autry (and their mother, Dominique McNair); daughters, Norea N. Oakley and Niyanna N. Autry (and their mother, Kurtriyah and Niriah N. Autry (and her mother, Chandra Hinton Taylor); brothers, Quenton Autry (Alexis), Timothy Autry, Brian Autry (Tiffany) sisters, Tiffany Gore, Katrina Autry (Chris) and Necole Autry (Antoine); and a host of other relatives and friends, including his special friends, Amelia Bascombe, Christopher Bowens and Charles Darby, Toni McNair and many many more. He is now joined in heaven with his favorite aunt Brenda Autry and his favorite uncle Curtis (Big Daddy) Pearson whom he called "Pops" and his close friends Kenneth (Mula) Battle and Greg (Big G) Caudle.
