

Remember Me

To the living, I am gone.
To the sorrowful, I will never return.
To the angry, I was cheated,
but to the happy, I am at peace,
and to the faithful, I have never left.
I cannot speak, but I can listen.
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.
So, as you stand upon a shore, gazing at a beautiful sea,
as you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity,
remember me.

Remember me in your heart,
your thoughts, and your memories
of the times we loved,
the times we cried,
the times we fought,
the times we laughed
for if you always think of me, I will never have gone.

Words of Appreciation
It is with sincere appreciation, we acknowledge the many expressions of sympathy which have come to us during the loss of our loved one. Your prayers, visits, phone calls, text messages, cards, condolences, and all expressions of sympathy extended to us during our bereavement, helped us in our burden of sadness.

Thank You.

Shantiquia Patrice Weaver Bannis-Holmes

Obituary

On July 20, 2020, Shantiquia Patrice Weaver Bannis-Holmes was called home to be with her Lord and Savior. She received the greatest grace of eternal peace, where there is no sadness or tears.

Shantiquia Patrice Bannis-Holmes was born December 11, 1985, to Charles Edwin Weaver and Patricia Bannis-Taylor at Morton Plant Hospital in Clearwater, Florida. She confessed Christ an early age and was baptized. She later joined Saint John Primitive Baptist Church under the leadership of Elder Benjamin Adams, Jr.

Shan, as she was affectionately called by family and friends, was a native of Clearwater, FL, and attended Clearwater Senior High School, where she graduated in 2004. She later furthered her education at Saint Petersburg College, as she excelled and received the Golden Key, and became apart of the International Honor Society.

Shantiquia met the love of her life, Anthony Holmes, and they were joined in Holy Matrimony on June 9, 2005, and to this union, flourished five beautiful children. She had a great sense of humor and always made others laugh. She had a heart of gold and loved her family dearly. She will be remembered for her love of others, her loyalty, and her kind heart.

Precious memories will linger in the hearts of: her husband, Anthony Holmes; children, Ashanti Holmes, A'sylei Holmes; stepchildren, Anthony Holmes III, Antoine Holmes, and Arie Holmes; her parents, Charles Edwin Weaver, Sr., and Patricia Bannis-Taylor (Vernon); brothers, Charles Edwin, Jr., Terry (Stephanie) Weaver, Donnell Weaver, and Edwin Weaver-Bannis; sisters, Kristy (Alphonso) Evans and Cheryl Weaver; god-daughter, Iyanna Lowe; best friend, Christina Bethune; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and friends.
