

God saw she was getting tired
 And a cure was not to be,
 So He put His arms around her
 And whispered, "Come with Me."
 With tearful eyes we watched her suffer
 And saw her fade away.
 Although we loved her dearly
 We could not make her stay.
 A golden heart stopped beating
 Hard working hands to rest,
 God broke our hearts to prove to us
 He only takes the best.

Our Sincere Appreciation

The Family of Lee Ann Chasten Kitchings would like to take this opportunity to extend their sincere appreciation to all who were so kind at this time; and during the illness of their loved one. Your thoughtfulness will always be remembered.

Life Reflections

On Tuesday morning, May 10, 2022, at the Lexington Medical Center, Lexington, South Carolina, the Lord called one of his loving children home.

Mrs. Lee Ann Chasten Kitchings, affectionately known as Calye Ann by family members and friends, was born October 24, 1940, to the late Brooks Kitchings, and the late Alaria Quattlebaum Kitchings in Aiken County, South Carolina.

Ann was baptized and joined Smyrna Baptist Church in Springfield, South Carolina. She attended Gum Ridge School in Salley, South Carolina.

In addition to her parents, Ann was preceded in her passing by her parents, two of her siblings, one brother, Brooker T. Kitchings and one sister Priscilla Kitchings.

Ann was a loving and caring mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister, and devoted aunt. She will truly be missed.

Lee Ann Chasten Kitchings leaves those who shared the priceless joys of life with her, and now are left to cherish her memories; one daughter, Wanda Dunbar Grant of Brooklyn, New York; one son, Joseph Louis Chasten of Wagener, South Carolina; three grandchildren, Jasmine Alaria Chasten, Jeffery Hudgen, and Tremayne Dunbar; four great grandchildren, Skylar Hudgen, Stephon Dunbar, Kamrion Hudgen, and Aubre Dunbar; Two sisters Betty Kitchings of Brooklyn, New York and Pamela Kitchings Douglas of Upstate, New Your; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and many, many friends.
