

A Celebration of the Love and Legacy of

FINAL PROF

Maggie Clemons Robinson

SUNRISE

May 23, 1927

SUNSET

August 2, 2022

10 A.M. Monday, August 8, 2022

Oakey Spring Missionary Baptist Church

2773 Firetower Road, Salley, SC 29137

Reverend Dr. Kenneth C. Perkins, Sr., Pastor

Reverend Gail Wise Yon, Eulogist

Acknowledgements

We, the family of Maggie Clemons Robinson, acknowledge and appreciate all of the kindness extended to us during our time of bereavement. It seems that no words would be adequate enough to express the gratefulness we feel for all that was done during this time. The many prayers, the extension of love and support, the presence and services that were given towards us helped to make each day more bearable. We would like to especially thank the Salley and Wagener Fire Departments for the professionalism and empathy shown to us on August 2nd during our unexpected tragedy. Our appreciation extends to the Town of Salley Mayor, LaDonna Hall, for stepping in and voluntarily rendering services. We would also like to thank the Bell's Family Restaurant for their gracious extension of love. As the family of Maggie Robinson, we pray that God will continue to cover and lift each of you.

To My Mother-in-Law

M - Maggie
A - Angel
G - Grandmother
G - Giver
I - Intelligent
E - Energetic

The love that you showed me will always live in my heart.

Lovingly submitted by your daughter-in-law,
Mary P. Robinson

The Life...The Legacy...The Memories

Maggie Clemons Robinson, wife, mother, grandmother, and more, was born in Orangeburg County on May 23, 1927. She was the daughter of the late Isadore and Annie Clemons. Maggie was picked by God to go home to glory on August 2, 2022.

Maggie spent her life in the towns of Springfield and Salley. She worked at Salley Manufacturing for many years doing multiple jobs. She was later employed as a Foster Grandparent in Salley Head Start.

Maggie was joined in holy matrimony to the late Harold Robinson, Sr. and they shared many years of marriage until his death.

Maggie joined Oakey Spring Missionary Baptist Church at an early age and remained a member until her death.

Maggie enjoyed quilting, sewing, working in her yard, playing bingo, baking pies, spending time with family, thrifting, riding with the first person whomever came along, and making you laugh. You knew when Maggie entered the room because she would look around and say, “Who you is?” followed by, “Who your people?”. To know Maggie was to love Maggie because she never met a stranger or said a harsh word to anyone.

Maggie was preceded in death by her siblings; her children, Mildred Edwards, Emma Anderson, LeeGrand Robinson, and Harold Robinson, Jr.; two grandchildren; and one great grandchild.

Maggie is survived by her children: Florine Staley of Salley, SC, Dorothy (Ervin) Corbitt, of Springfield, SC, Johnnie Mae (Michael) Kearse of Orangeburg, SC, Ronnie (Gladys) Robinson of Columbia, SC, Reada Robinson of the home, Jonathan Robinson of Batesburg, SC, Harry Lee (Thomasina) Robinson of Aiken, SC, Gregory Robinson of Williston, SC and Rutha Mae Porter of Springfield, SC; special grandsons reared in the home, James Robinson and Victor Robinson; in laws, James Anderson of North, SC, Roosevelt (Janice) Edwards of Wagener, SC and Mary P. Robinson of Neeses, SC; special friends, Flora Harris of Salley, SC and Margaret Jackson of Springfield, SC; forty grandchildren, eighty-six great-grandchildren and a host of great-great grands, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

*I'm sending a dove to Heaven with a parcel on its wings ...
Be careful when you open it it's full of beautiful things.
Inside are a million kisses
wrapped up in a million hugs...
To say how much I miss you and to send you all my love.
I hold you close within my heart
and there you will remain ...
To walk with me throughout my life
until we meet again.*

LEGACY OF LOVE

*A wife, a mother, a grandma too,
This is the legacy we have from you.
You taught us love and how to fight,
You gave us strength, you gave us might.
A stronger person would be hard to find,
And in your heart, you were always kind.
You fought for us all in one way or another,
Not just as a wife, not just as a mother.
For all of us you gave your best,
Now the time has come for you to rest.
So go in peace, you've earned your sleep,
Your love in our hearts, we'll eternally keep*
Author unknown

PALLBEARERS
Grandsons

FLORAL BEARERS
Granddaughters

Funeral Arrangements By,
J. H. Robinson Funeral Home of Wagener
190 Railroad Avenue W., Wagener, SC
803-546-5623

Program Design by Darryl & Karen S. Waymyers