

"Death is nothing at all.

I have only slipped away into the next room.

I am I, and you are you. Whatever we were to each other, that we still are.

Call me by my old familiar name, speak to me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference in your tone, wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.

Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together.

Pray, smile, think of me, pray for me.

Let my name be ever the household word that it always was, let it be spoken with effect, without the trace of a shadow on it.

Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was; there is unbroken continuity.

Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?

I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just round the corner.

All is well."

CELEBRATION OF LIFE

"And I heard a voice from Heaven saying blessed are the dead who die in the Lord," --Revelation 14:13

Mr. Elmore (Booger Boy) Brown, Jr. silently left with the Angel, away to a land that is free from sickness, sorrow and pain, on the morning of August 27, 2022 at 3:34 am at The Place of Martinez Nursing Home in the city of Augusta, GA.

At an early age he joined the Smyrna Baptist Church. He was a fun loving yet serious individual and would do whatever he could to help you.

He was born on September 21, 1943 to the late Elmore Brown, Sr. and the late Artee Quattlebaum Brown. He received his education from A. L. Corbett High School. He had to work in the fields to help provide for his family. He formerly worked at Superior Meat Company, Augusta GA. He also enjoyed driving heavy equipment.

Elmore Jr. was the third of seven siblings. Three preceded him in death: Carolyn Brown Scarborough, Harry T. Brown and Deborah Brown.

He leaves to cherish his memories: two sisters, Ruth Johnson, Artistine (Spurgeon) Simmons; one brother, Roland (Rosa) Brown; two sisters-in-law, Willie Mae Brown and Rosa Mae Brown; one brother-in-law, Minister James Brown, all of Salley, South Carolina; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
