Obituary

Glyndia Teresa Davis was born July 31, 1956, in Salley, SC to Anna Laura Quattlebaum and Phillip Lloyd. Glyndia died peacefully on the morning of December 23, 2022, in Minneapolis, MN. She was preceded in death by her father - Phillip, siblings - Alvenia, Rita, and Phillip Darrell. Glyndia was married to the late Kencaid Davis, and the union had no children.

Glyndia was raised in Salley, SC attending AL Corbett Elementary School until the age of 10 and moved to Washington D.C. Glyndia attended DC Public Schools and graduated from Burdick Vocational High School. Upon graduation Glyndia began her administrative career working at the National Institutes of Health. Her professional career was highlighted by attention to detail and helping create a positive environment at work. Glyndia served more than 20 years at Burke & Herbert Bank Operations Center as a proof operator. She led staff celebrations, especially during the holidays with good food, singing carols and good cheer. Glyndia retired from Burke & Herbert Bank in 2018 and moved to Minnesota to be near her only child, Glen, and his family.

Glyndia was baptized at Smyrna Baptist Church in Springfield, SC, and a long-time member at Mount Jezreel Baptist Church (MJBC) in Silver Spring, MD. She faithfully served in the MJBC Ushers Ministry and sang in the Trammell Chorale. Glyndia sang constantly with her beloved family when they gathered as well as in private as an encouragement to others.

Glyndia was a beloved daughter, sister, cousin, aunt, mother, grandmother, and friend. Known for her generous spirit and infectious energy, wherever Glyndia traveled she made strangers into friends with ease. Glyndia is loved most by her family and friends that were serenaded on their birthdays with her unique, joyous singing. Above all, God gifted Glyndia with uncommon enthusiasm and generosity.

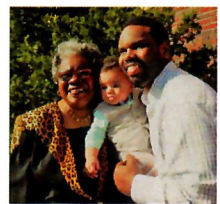

Glyndia enjoyed traveling to family reunions and church revivals. She stayed connected to her family by attending family gatherings - graduations, birthdays, cookouts, funerals, weddings, baby showers, and holiday gatherings. Glyndia was an excellent cook and enjoyed doing her part to have a great meal.

Glyndia is survived by her son - Glen (Sarah) Lloyd, grandchildren - Harrison, Charlotte, and Draper, her mother Anna Laura, siblings - Connie Jones, Ruby Lloyd, Juanita (Billy) Williams, Paulette (Trevor) McMillan, Donna James, Dena (Camilo) Richards, aunt Christine, uncles Joseph (Marion) Lloyd and Willie Lloyd Jr., special cousin relationships Mamie, Evelma, Marcia, Gloria, Audrey, and a hosts of nieces, nephews, cousins, co-workers, and friends.

Glyndia lives on through her laughter, birthday calls, unwavering encouragement, and signature statements. She religiously kept in touch with family and friends through phone calls and her presence in life's mundane and significant moments. From this life to the eternal, we hear Glyndia Teresa say, "BYE-BYE"! Rest peacefully in God's eternal care and love.

“BIG HEAD I SAY”

Big Head I say, where are you at?
Right here I Say, standing in my light shining so Bright in the color Red that I Like.

Big Head I say, where are you at?
Right here I Say, I'm going to the market to get some potatoes for my favorite dish that I like.

Big Head I say, where are you at?
Right here I Say. Singing Happy Birthday to All my family and friends that I love and I like.

Big Head I say, where are you at?
Right here I Say. Grabbing the hands of those who I have missed as I give them a kiss.

Big Head I say, where are you at?
Right here I Say, but tomorrow will start without me because my heavenly home has called upon me.

Big Head I say, but I'll miss you.
I am at Peace and my soul is at Rest. There is no need for tears. For with your love I was Blessed for all those many years.

Remember my Cherry smile as I have place on my Glory crown.
Ya, Big Heads Be Good Until I See Ya Again.
