LIFE PROFILE

"And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain; for the former things are passed away."

Revelation 21:4

A TIME TO BE BORN

John "Lindsay" Caughman was born on July 16, 1958 in Lexington County, Lexington, South Carolina to the late Mr. Johnny Wesley and Mrs. Cubia Davis Caughman.

A TIME TO LIVE

At an early age, "Lindsay" joined Mount Olive Christian Methodist Episcopal Church (CME), where he attended Sunday School and church services on a regular basis and when his health would allow him. Under the leadership of Reverend B. T. Martin, "Lindsay" and Woodrow Davis would responsible for the Annual Veterans Program held in November of each year at Mount Olive CME.

In his childhood days "Lindsay" was a Boy Scout, where he advanced to an Explorer under "The Charlie Blackwell Boy Scout Troop." He graduated in the year of 1976 from Lexington High School. He attended Benedict College in Columbia, South Carolina and later graduated from Trenton College in Trenton, New Jersey, where he obtained his Associate Degree.

"Lindsay" was a Sergeant in the United States Army, stationed at Fort Dix, in New Jersey. He was a member of the American Legion Post #217. He was not only a member during his tenure but served as Past Commander of that Post. "Lindsay" was employed with Whaley Food, PSS World Medical Pharmaceutical and worked for many years at NCR in West Columbia, South Carolina.

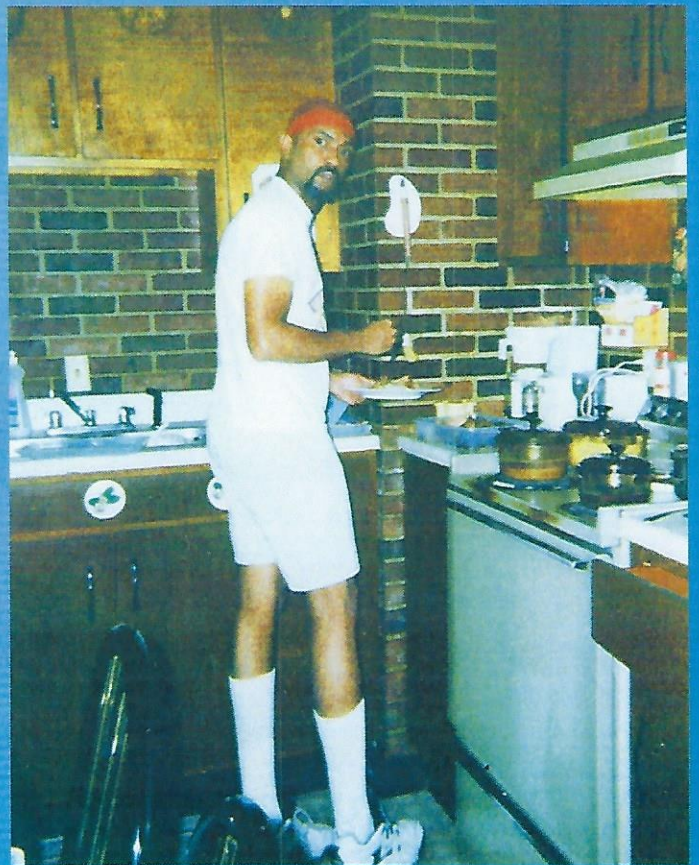

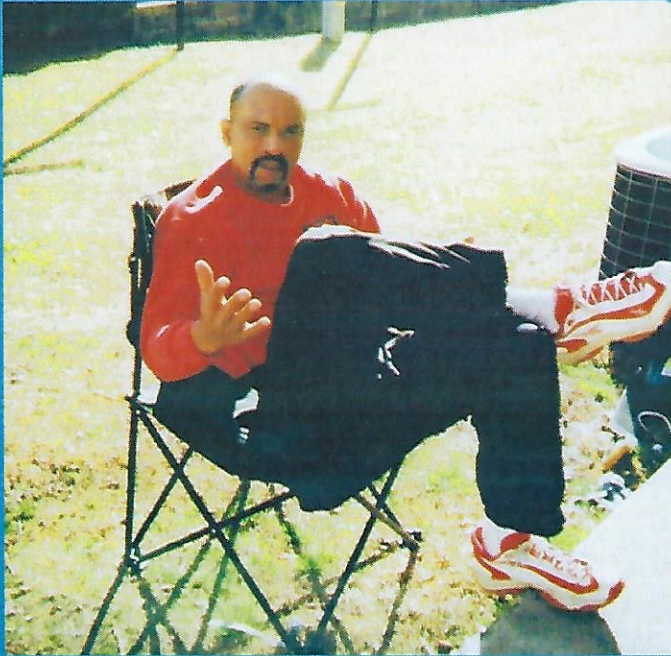

A TIME TO GRIEVE

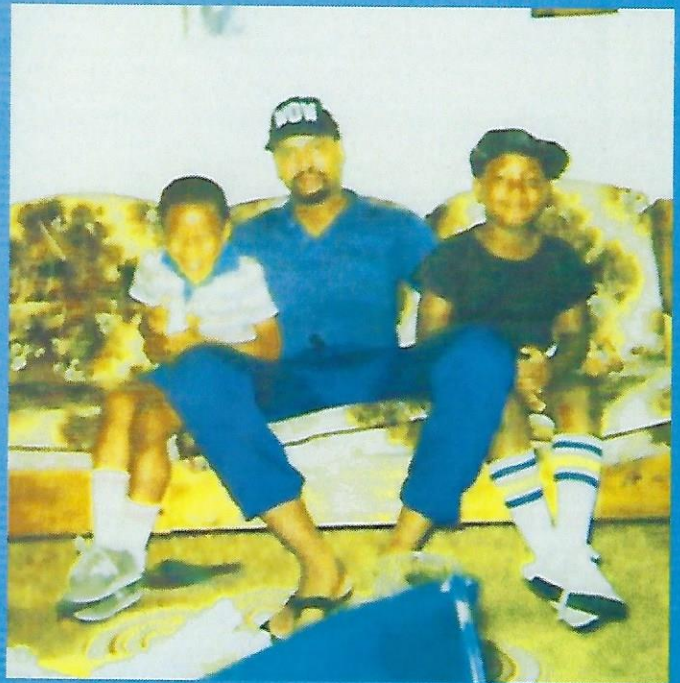

He was preceded in death by her mother and father; his brothers, Thomas Edward Caughman and Herbie David Caughman; grandparents, Olia and Milledge Davis; and his mother-in-law, Lousie Harley.

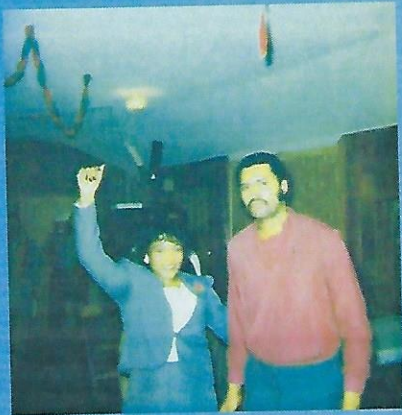

"Lindsay" leaves to cherish fond and loving memories: his wife of thirty-five years, Denise Harley Caughman; sons, John Parks of Columbia, South Carolina and Eric Harley of West Columbia, South Carolina; grandchildren, Dashun Battle, Kenyon Hopson, Audrey Coleman, Isabell Parks of New York; T-Erika Harley and Sha-maria Harley of Houston, Texas; one sister, Mineva (Rogers) Cook and one brother, Terrance Rex Caughman-Karen both of Lexington, South Carolina; his father-in-law, Edward Prioleau of West Columbia, South Carolina; and loving children, nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews, great-great nieces and nephews, cousins and friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

Lindsay

"Speak of me as you have always done.
Remember the good times, laughter, and fun.

Share the happy memories we've made.
Do not let them wither or fade.

I'll be with you in the summer's sun
And when the winter's chill has come.

I'll be the voice that whispers in the breeze.
I'm peaceful now, put your mind at ease.

I've rested my eyes and gone to sleep,
But memories we've shared are yours to keep.

Sometimes our final days may be a test,
But remember me when I was at my best.

Although things may not be the same.
Don't be afraid to use my name.

Let your sorrow last for just a while.
Comfort each other and try to smile.

I've lived a life filled with joy and fun.
Live on now, make me proud of what you'll become."
