

Life Is But A Stopping

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord

Obituary

Vernoy Livingston affectionately known as “Noy” was born to the union of Grady “Sonny Boy” Land Janie “Mama” Livingston. He received his formal education in the Aiken County Public School System.

At an early age he accepted the Lord as his Personal Saviour and joined the Smyrna Baptist Church. For many years he lived and worked in New York. Upon returning to Aiken, SC he worked at Palmetto-Richland Hospital and Lexington Medical Center. He married long-time companion Rose and to this union a love of fishing was born.

God saw he was getting weary. He did what He thought best. He put His arms around him and said, come and rest. It was early Friday morning June 12, 2020, God opened up His golden gates on that heart-breaking day, and with His arms around him, he gently slipped away. He leaves to reunite with those who preceded him in death his son Anthony Landy, his loving parents and siblings.

Those left to cherish and reflect upon his memories are his wife Rose of the home; four sons Vernoy Livingston of North Carolina; Donnell Reed and Joelle James of Bronx, NY; LaRon Evans of Wagener, SC. Three daughters Sharise Reed of Bronx NY, Katrina Harris and Jessica Lykes of Columbia SC; his grandchildren and great-grandchildren; five sisters Sarah Scott, Patricia (Isaac) Quattlebaum, Ivra Fenner, Hester (Stanley) Brown, and Janice Livingston; five brothers Willie (Carrie) Livingston, Larry Livingston, Bernard (Evelyn) Livingston, Berry Livingston, Royd (Rosemary) Livingston; his daughter-in-law's; two aunts Alberta Ables and Carolyn Livingston; one uncle Arthur (Nona) Ables and a host of neices, nephews, other relatives and friends.
