

God saw Daddy was getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around him
And whispered, "Come with me."

With tearful eyes we watched Daddy suffer
And saw him fade away,
Although we loved him dearly
We could not make him stay.

A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands to rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

*Love,
Viola and Dennis*

Life Reflections

Branch Chandler, affectionately know as Sugar Boy, was born October 27, 1933 in Aiken County, South Carolina. He was the son of the late Rev. James and Izolia Lowe Chandler. On September 1, 2020, he answered the call to enter into his eternal rest.

in 1954, Branch was united in holy matrimony to the late loving Jessie Mae Brown Chandler. To this union four children were born.

He was a faithful and dedicated Deacon at Ocean Grove Baptist Church for many years until his health failed.

He was preceded in death by his son, Kenneth Chandler; daughter, Izolia Isaac; five brothers, Raymond, Rev. Everett, James, Wesley, John Quincy and one sister, Amanda Mason. Also devoted wives, Hattie R. Chandler and Catherine G. Chandler.

Branch leaves to cherish his fond memories: daughter, Minister Viola (Clarence) Williams; son, Dennis Chandler; three grandchildren, Donna Isaac, Rosetta (Gabriel) Green, and Mitch (Shirley) Isaac; eight great grands and six great-great grands; many step children and grands; four sisters, Dianne Chandler, Sadie Counts, Ida Landy, and Olia Chandler; five brothers, Rosco (Diane) Chandler, Randolph (Eliza) Chandler, Rev. Douglas (Rose) Chandler, Rev. Robert (Deborah) Chandler and Rudolph Chandler; six in-laws, Mildred Chandler, Evonne Briggs, Maraget Gantt, Marian Brown and Clarence Brown; a host of step children and grands, nieces, nephews and many friends.
