

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me now, I'm Free.
 I'm following the path God laid for me.
 I took His hand when I heard Him call.
 I could not stay another day.
 Tasks left undone must stay that way.
 I found that Peace at the close of the day.
 If my parting has left a void
 Then fill it with remembered joy.
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
 Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
 Be not burdened with time of sorrow;
 I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow;
 My life's been full I've savored much;
 Good friends, good times and a
 Love One's touch.
 Perhaps my time seemed all too brief.
 Lift up your heart and share with me;
 God wanted me now, He set me free.

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while-
 Please do not grieve or shed wild tears
 And hug your sorrow to you through the years;
 But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
 And for my sake and in my name
 Live on and do all things the same.
 Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
 But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
 Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
 And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
 And never, never be afraid to die,
 For I am waiting for you in the sky!

Our Sincere Appreciation

The Family would like to extend our sincere appreciation to everyone for their devotion during this time of sorrow. All of the messages, calls, gifts and visits helped greatly with sustaining our strength in this time.

Life Reflections

Clarence Tarish Davis was born April 24, 1975 in Newark, New Jersey. He was the son of the late great Clarence F. and Shirley R. Davis.

Tarish was educated at Lexington High School, Lexington, South Carolina.

He was a faithful and devoted member of the Word of God Church Ministries where he was known as "a drummer for the Lord", as Bishop Davis would say.

Tarish loved attending church. He would have gone everyday if that were an option. He was truly a man after God's own heart.

Tarish lives on through his one and only son, Keyvan Anderson of Lexington; sister, Latisha Davis of Lexington, and brother, Jamaal Davis of Irmo; nephew, Jordan Davis; nieces, Destiny Lynch, Madison Davis, Kayla Harder; two cousins, Tracy (Gregg) Brown, and Stacy Gregg who were like sisters to him. Also, a host of loving relatives and many life long friends all of whom will miss him dearly but will rejoice in knowing that he is now joined with his Mother and Father and our Lord..

Tarish worked many years at the Old Mill Brew Pub where he was loved and accepted as family especially by John Clinger and Doug Seidenstricker. Tarish looked forward to going to work; he didn't like having much idle time. He loved staying busy.
