Her Life Story

God looked around his garden and found an empty space then looked upon the earth and saw your tired face and lifted you to rest. Georgia Ann Ginyard was born September 11, 1959 to the late George B. and Alberta Ginyard.

Hollywood joined the Chalk Hill Baptist Church at an early age; and attended Aiken County Public School. She worked at several boat companies until her retirement. Hollywood enjoyed spending time with her family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her sister, Eartha Ginyard and brother, Robert Wooten.

Hollywood leaves to cherish her memory: daughter, Angie (Josh) Davenport; son, Travis (Cindy) Ginyard; her companion of 20 years, Christopher (Ron) Tyler; two brothers, Melvin (Gwen) Ginyard and George Willie (Mishell) Ginyard all of Wagener, South Carolina; sister, Lystine (Joe) Ginyard Harrington from Orlando, Florida; godson, Marcus (MJ) Jr. of Gaston, South Carolina; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Georgia (Hollywood) will truly be missed by her family and friends.

"Death Is Nothing at All"

"Death is nothing at all.
I have only slipped away into the next room.
I am I, and you are you. Whatever we were to each other, that we still are.
Call me by my old familiar name, speak to me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference in your tone, wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.
Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together.
Pray, smile, think of me, pray for me.
Let my name be ever the household word that it always was, let it be spoken without effect, without the trace of a shadow on it.
Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was, there is unbroken continuity.
Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?
I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just round the corner.
All is well."
