

"I AM FREE"

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm Free,
I'm following paths God made for me
I took his hand; I heard him call
Then turned and bid farewell to all.*

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to sing, to play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found my peace---at close of day.*

And if my parting left a void

*Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened---deep with sorrow
I wish you sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full I've savoured much
Good friends, good times
A loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
God wanted me now
HE SET ME FREE.*

LIFE REFLECTIONS OF

"A Life Well Lived"

MR. DAVID DUNBAR also known as "Grandpa" and "DD" was born August 5, 1928, to Ed Axson and Molly Dunbar. He was a man who spoke his mind. He loved his wife, grandchildren, and welding. His favorite sport was baseball and his favorite team was the Atlanta Braves. He also had a special saying, "take care of my wife" which was Alma Dunbar, who he loved dearly. He gained his wings and joined the Lord on March 4, 2022.

During his earlier years, he joined Sardis Baptist Church. He later joined Jerusalem Branch Baptist Church where he served on the Brotherhood and the Senior Choir, where he attended faithfully until his health failed.

He wedded the love of his life, Alma Lloyd on April 12, 1974. Through the years, Mr. Dunbar held several jobs including, Power National and SC Highway Department. Mr. Dunbar was also a local Entrepreneur; he and Mrs. Alma Owned D and A Service Station for over 25 years until they retired. They then opened D & A Country Store right in their front yard.

Mr. Dunbar was a self-taught master welder. He was a volunteer fireman for the Salley Fire Department. He enjoyed working in his garden; when he wasn't gardening, he could be found talking on his CB Radio to people all over the United States. His CB handle was "Gas Pumper".

Mr. Dunbar loved and supported his family. He was preceded in death by his parents and daughter, Betty Smith. Those left to cherish his memories are his loving wife, Alma L. Dunbar; one daughter, Linda Acoff (William); brothers-in-law, Joseph Lloyd (Marion), and Willie Lloyd, Jr. (Bertha); granddaughters, Taunya Swedenburg (Willie), and Sonya Smith-McKenzie (Dante); great-grandchildren, Jerel Swedenburg, Taunija Swedenburg, Oriana Smith, Tayvon McKenzie, and Makaijah Walker; great-great grandson, Jaceon Swedenburg, and a host of relatives and friends.
