Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly on a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, that anyone could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console or hearts, we thank you much whatever the part.

Love You All Immensely,

The Watson - Scott Family

SR. PASTOR DWIGHT KEYS, OFFICIANT
BETHEL PRAISE & WORSHIP CENTER

Mom,

We'll never forget your face
The sound of your voice,
The gentleness of your touch...
They let us know we were loved.
We'll never forget the stories you told,
The traditions you handed down...
They let us know who we are.
We'll never forget the lessons you taught,
The things you stood for...
They are your gift and our legacy.
We'll never forget, and we'll always know
That we honor you everyday
In how we live
And who we are

Love You Always,

Brian, Brenna, Brandon, Britney & Deondria

Granny,

There's magic in a Grandmother's Touch, and sunshine in her smile.
There's love in everything she does to make our lives worthwhile.
We can find both hope and courage just by looking in her eyes.
her laughter is a source of joy, her works are warm and wise.
There is a kindness and compassion to be found in her embrace,
and we see the light of heaven shining from our Grandmother's face.

Love You Always,

Sydney, Haleigh, Brandon, Christian & Briannee

Brenda Faye WATSON

Brenda Faye Watson answered the call from heaven on January 18, 2023. She was the first born to the late Willie E. Watson and the late Helen F. Kennard on November 2, 1953.

A native Houstonian raised in the heart of 3rd Ward, where she attended J. Will Jones & Turner Elementary, Ryan Middle School, and Jack Yates High School until they relocated to the South Park community. Due to moving and zoning, she graduated from Ross Shaw Sterling High School. She continued her education at Alvin Junior College obtaining her administrative assistant certificate. She later attended Houston Community College in pursuit of a nursing career.

At an early age, she accepted Christ at Jordan Grove Baptist Church. Brenda later became a member of Holman Street Baptist under the leadership of the late Rev. Sherman A. Douglas, where she was involved in Mission, CPA (Concerned Parents Association) and the choir under the leadsership of the late Shephard Teacher, Manson B. Johnson. In 1996, she went on to join the Bethel Praise & Worship Center family under the leadership of the late Lionel Keys. Brenda was involved in the children and youth ministry as well as the Deaconess Ministry under the leadership of Sr. Pastor Dwight Keys.

In 1985, Brenda began her career in the utility industry, working for a small family business known as Muniservice. She worked with this company for more than 20 years, helping the company to grow until it was sold. She continued working in the utility industry until attaining a job with the City of Houston. She worked with the City of Houston until her health began to fail.

Brenda was a very charismatic and candid person with a very generous heart. Her home was always a haven for family and friends. She was known in the community and by her church families as the hairdresser and the seamstress. On any given Saturday morning you could visit and receive a big hot breakfast, get your hair done and experience a laugh or two.

In 1974, she married her high school sweetheart Bobby W. Scott and to this union they loved and cared for their four children; whom will cherish their memories with her forever, Brian (Kennisha), Brenna, Brandon and Britney. She had a vast love for family, always lending a hand to care for her nieces and nephews. This love afforded her the opportunity to raise her niece, Deondria as her own daughter. She had an infinite love for her goddaughter Deadria Allen. Brenda affectionally known as Granny, leaves precious memories with her grandchildren, Sydney Fairbanks, Haleigh Scott, Brandon Scott,II, Christian Fairbanks and Briannee Scott.

Brenda was keen on creating lasting relationships with her late parents, her aunt Bennie Mae Mckinley (Frank), her bonus mom Mary Watson, all her siblings, Debra Green (George), Pamela Campbell (Ceasar), Memorie Huelett (Micheal), Malandria Watson (Terry), Billy Watson (LaQuisa) and Micheal Watson (Rhonda). Her relationships were everlasting, creating a bond that was unbreakable with her mother-in-love Eleanor Caesar and her sisters-in-love the late Bridgett Scott, Linda Williams-Moore (Harlon), the late Wanda Scott, Tanya Scott, Donetta Scott, Constalene Ferguson (Kenneth), Jackie Ward (James), Diane Norton (Ervin), and the late Vanessa Johnson.

She leaves a host of relatives and friends to cherish her memories.

To Our Sister,

I'm blessed to call you sister, I also call you friend;
You've loved me unconditionally, and stood through thick and thin.

You've shared my joys and sorrows, my laughter and my tears.
You've been my inspiration, as we grew up through the years.

When we were little children, we laughed and played together;
Then growing up you stood by me, through good and stormy weather.

There's something God has given us, that's more than family;
He's placed a love for you, my Sister, deep down in the heart of me.

Love You Always,

Debra, Pam, Memorie, Malandria, Billy & Michael
