BECAUSE YOU WERE HERE

Why did I take for granted,
What I had every day;
That precious time has passed and now,
You have gone away.

I treasure each memory of you,
And wish you could be here again;
For I'd cherish all you say and do,
Why didn't I know it then?

What can I do to show,
You mean so much to me?
Yes – There is a way to let you know,
And what finer tribute can there be?

Today and now, these with me here,
I'll wrap my warmest love around.
Their every smile I'll give you, Dear,
Because you lived, love will abound.

E.J. Langford
