Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road And the sun has set for me I want no rites in a gloom-filled room Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.

It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.

In Loving Memory of

Phyllis Leona Taylor Doerr

December 19, 1943 - January 7, 2020

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still water. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Phyllis Leona Taylor Doerr, 76, of of North Little Rock died January 7, 2020. She was born December 19, 1943 in Gurdon, Arkansas to the late Oran F. and Lula R. Taylor.

Phyllis was a member of Levy United Methodist Church. She was a retired Guidance Counselor at NLR High School. She earned a BSE from Henderson State University and a Masters and Educational Specialist Degree in Counseling and Advanced Counseling, from UCA in Conway. She enjoyed working on genealogy and had written and published a book on the Campbell Roberson Family Tree. Birthdays were important to her and she tried to always send cards to all family members and friends.

Phyllis was preceded in death by brothers, Jerroll L. Taylor and Oran W. Taylor; and sister, Martha Anna Mecchi. Survivors include her husband, Steven E. Doerr; sister, Lettina Taylor Greene of Georgia; brothers, M. Frank Taylor of Magnolia and Lano E. Taylor of Mountain View; many nieces and nephews, as well as great-nieces and nephews.

Graveside service will be at 1:00 P.M., Monday, January 13, 2020 at Rose Hedge Cemetery, Gurdon, Arkansas, officiated by Rev. Jimmy J. Mosbey.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to Levy United Methodist Church, 701 West 47th Street, North Little Rock, AR 72218 or Arkansas Children's Hospital, 1 Children's Way, Little Rock, AR 72202.
