HE ONLY TAKES THE BEST

God saw she was getting tired,
And a cure was not to be,
So he put his arms around her,
And whispered "Come with me",
With tearful eyes
we watched her suffer,
And saw her fade away,
Although we love her dearly,
We could not make her stay,
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest,
God broke our hearts
to prove to us,
He only takes the best.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

JUANITA HOLLOWAY

JANUARY 20, 1924 ~ FEBRUARY 22, 2020

✧ ————— ✧

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.

Juanita Blazer Holloway, 96, of North Little Rock passed away Saturday, February 22, 2020. She was born in Jacksonville, Arkansas to Roy and Eleanor Blazer. Juanita graduated from North Little Rock High School in 1941 and enjoyed getting together with her classmate for years.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband of 64 years, Perry B. Holloway, Sr.; and her sister, Elizabeth "Liz" Rea. She is survived by her two sons, Perry "Bud" Holloway, Jr. of North Little Rock and Garry Holloway (Misty) of Saratoga, California; grandchildren, John Holloway (Kate), of San Francisco, California and Cheryl Holloway (Adam), of Brooklyn, New York; great-grandchild, Dune Bazadona of Brooklyn, New York; nephew Larry Rea (Miriam) of Germantown, Tennessee, and other special nieces and nephews.

The family would like to thank all of the wonderful residents at the Lakewood House for their kindness and their caring. She was there for over 17 years and then moved to Fox Ridge and loved it there also.

Memorials may be made to Friendly Chapel Church, 116 S. Pine St., North Little Rock, Arkansas 72114 or charity of choice.

A visitation will be from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m., Saturday, February 29, 2020, followed by a funeral service at 2:00 p.m., at Smith – North Little Rock Funeral Home, 1921 Main Street. A private burial will be held at Arkansas State Veterans Cemetery.
