

"Please be happy for me because I've been so blessed and love my family. I just want everyone to be thankful I'm with my Lord and we will spend eternity together."

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

JimO'Lee Newton Angel

November 22, 1940 ~ April 26, 2020

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

JimO'Lee Newton Angel, of North Little Rock, passed away on April 26, 2020. She was born in England, Arkansas on November 22, 1940 to J.B. and Ollie Lee Newton. Her Christian faith was very important to her. JimO'Lee graduated from North Little Rock High School in 1958 and then went on to the Baptist Hospital School of Nursing for RN's. She attended University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences for Nurse Practitioners. She worked for Baptist Medical Center in the operating room and retired after thirty-five years of nursing with the Veterans Administration Medical Center.

She is preceded in death by her parents. Known as "Mamaw" to her family; she is survived by her daughters, Tami Henderson (Paul James "P.J.") and Debi Arrington; grandchildren, Chris Wilkins (Megan), Courtney Lee May (James "J.J"), Justin Henderson, and Shane Raper; great-grandchildren, Trip, Hannah, Kayleigh, Madilynn, Emily, J.P., Mackenzie, and Brinley; sister, Brenda Nalley (Brian); and many cherished friends. Her daughters wish to extend a special thanks to John Woodard, Judy Thornsberry, and Teresia Dupins for their love and care of our mother.

Memorials may be made to Covenant Family Church, 1400 James Street, North Little Rock, Arkansas 72117.

A graveside service will be held at 1:00 p.m., Friday, May 1, 2020 at Edgewood Memorial Park with Minister Teresia Dupins officiating.
