WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU

When I must leave you for a little while—Please do not grieve
and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years,
But start out bravely
with a gallant smile;
And for my sake
and in my name
Live on and do
all things the same,
Feed not your loneliness
on empty days,
But fill each waking hour
in useful ways,
Reach out your hand
in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never
be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!

Ollie Faye Coleman, 86, of Beebe, Arkansas went to be with the Lord January 6, 2020. She was born October 25, 1933 in Greenwood, Arkansas to Robert and Una Mae Harris. She was a retired manager of Supersweet Feeds in Beebe. Faye was a member of Open Arms Church in Beebe.

She is survived by one son, George (Stacey) Coleman of El Paso; two grandchildren William Casey Miller and Chantel McClung; one great granddaughter Maggie Blair; one brother, Bobby (Imogene) Harris of Jonesboro; three sisters Ruby Evans of Cabot, Carolyn Toy of Batesville, Sue (Rick) Green of Searcy; and several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband George Coleman, Sr.; one grandson, Adam McClung; and two sisters, Clara Mae Estes and Geraldine Williams.

The family wants to thank Betty Foster and Sharon Griggs for the wonderful care they gave Faye.
