Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.

It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.

He was born to Kevin and Kimberly Lucas on June 18, 2002 in Center Hill, Arkansas. Matthew enjoyed watching the Arkansas Razorbacks, the Dallas Cowboys and Dallas Mavericks with his family.

He liked the simple things such as mowing the lawn, learning to drive and playing family board games. He had a joy for life that was unmatched. Matthew had a quick wit and enjoyed making others laugh, but his greatest bond was with his mother.

Even with a Glioblastoma diagnosis he was grateful it was him and not one of his siblings. Always the warrior, he had faith every step of his journey. He had a servant's heart, always putting others before himself.

He is preceded in death by his uncle Bob Hahn, paternal grandfather Malton Lucas, and maternal grandfather William Crain.

Matthew is survived by his parents; four siblings, Carrie Lucas, Christen Lucas, Mark Lucas and Clarissa Lucas; one niece Juliette "Julie" (Lucas) Nutt; grandmothers Gloria Lucas and Jane Dubose; and many other family and friends.

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man laydown his life for his friends." John 15:13 KJV

"Now I am hidden, in the safety of your love. I trust your heart and your intentions. Trust you completely, I'm listening intently. You'll guide me through these many shadows."
