A Loving Tribute To Our
Mother, Grandmother, Great-Grandmother, Sister, Aunt, Great-Aunt,
Great-Great-Aunt, Cousin, and Dear Friend.

Mrs. Evelyn Moore Mack

Mere words cannot express our love for you, and the gratitude we feel for having had you in our life. You were such a special blessing to us all, and always there to inspire and guide us on our journey. We could never thank you enough for your wisdom, humor, and gentleness, even when we were sometimes wrong. Oh, how we will miss your beautiful smile and laughter, which always brightened our day. Everyone you met became a close friend, regardless of their creed, ethnicity, or status. That's how special you were, a child of the Most High God, spreading love and kindness to all. For seventy-eight years, God allowed you on Earth to touch the hearts of so many. You will remain in our hearts until we meet again in the land of no more pain, no more sorrow, no more suffering, no more lack, no more death, just praising our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ all the day long. We will remember one of your favorite songs,

"May the Work I've Done, Speak for Me."

Take your rest; we truly love you, but God loves you best!

A Tribute to My Mother-in-Law Evelyn

M – She has been a MOM to me.

O – She always put OTHERS first, and was always ready to help them meet their needs.

T – Her TIME was never her own; she shared and used it for others.

H – She was a HARD working woman.

E – Her treasure is laid up in Heaven, for all ETERNITY and forever.

R – She REALIZED that she would REAP what she sowed; therefore, she planted goodness.

IN – IN prayer, she upheld all of us.

L – LOTS of sacrificial LOVE was given by her over the years.

A – She was ALWAYS there to listen, to help, and to lend a hand.

W – She knew that true WISDOM came from the Lord.

Thanks, Mother-in-law,
Janet Mack

For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Acknowledgement

During our time of loss, we are deeply and profoundly appreciative to know we have extended family and friends who have been here with us each and every step of the way. You have sustained us with your prayers, love, words of encouragement, calls, and visits during the transition of our loved one. But most of all, thank you for honoring Evelyn in such a sincere and heart-felt manner and way.

We say, "Thank You."

THE WORK THAT I'VE DONE, IT SEEMS SO SMALL.
SOMETIMES IT SEEMS LIKE
NOTHING AT ALL. BUT
WHEN I STAND BEFORE
MY GOD, I WANT TO HEAR HIM SAY, "WELL DONE!" MAY THE WORK
I'VE DONE, SERVICE
I GIVE, & LIFE I LIVE
SPEAK FOR ME.

Obituary

And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.

—Romans 8:28

A native of Shadyside, and lifelong resident of Franklin, Louisiana, Evelyn Moore was born on February 4, 1942, to the union of Walter and Orelia Carr-Moore. She was fifth of twelve children born to this marriage. Evelyn was educated in the St. Mary Parish School System, attending school at Verdunville Elementary and Willow Street High School. After school, she began her professional career as a nutritionist/food service worker, being employed by the St. Mary Parish School System and Plantation Inn Restaurant. Later in life, she found a passion in becoming a domestic engineer, working in both her home and the homes of others, caring for children and the elderly. Evelyn united in holy matrimony with the late Morris Mack, Sr., and to this union four children were born: Morris, Jr., Jason, James, and Angela.

Evelyn had a loving Christian heart, was a woman of prayer, and always put her family and friends first. Evelyn was a faithful member of the Little Jerusalem Church in Shadyside, under the leadership of Reverend Ulysses Mitchell, Jr. She was also known for visiting other churches in her community and attending local plays to get a good laugh supporting her grandson, niece, and others. We would dare not forget about her good cooking, and how she loved to entertain her family and friends. To recap her life, Evelyn Mack was a devoted wife, loving mother and grandmother, sister, aunt, and dear friend.

Evelyn was preceded in death by: her husband, Morris Mack, Sr.; her parents, Walter and Orelia Moore; her sisters, Georgia Moore-Perkins, Lilly Moore-Campbell-Akbar, Orelia Moore, Catherine Broussard, and Geraldine Hart; two brothers, Pastor Walter Moore, Jr., and James Moore; maternal grandparents, Pastor Johnny Carr, Sr., and Evelyn Ford-Carr; and paternal grandparents, Walter Moore, Sr., and Lilly Mitchell-Moore, all whom awaited her Heavenly arrival. In the seventy-eighth season of her life, on Friday, May 8, 2020, at 10:10 AM at her residence, the Lord saw that Evelyn's body had become feeble, and He wanted her to come to her heavenly home with Him. He softly called her name and said, "Come unto me, Evelyn, and rest!"

Evelyn's life will forever be celebrated and remembered in the lives of those she is survived by, which includes: her four children, Morris Mack, Jr., and his wife, Janet, Jason Mack, James Mack, Angela Stewart and her husband Oscar, all of Franklin; four sisters, Carolyn Boatman and Delores Stewart, both of Franklin, Linda Lashley and her husband, Victor, of Verdunville, and Diane Freeman and her husband, Eddie, of New Iberia; twelve grandchildren, sixteen great-grandchildren; her extended family, Racheal Ruiz-Washington, Joseph Harris, Lisa and Kevin Hebert, Trace Hebert, Ali Hebert, Cheryl Roberson, Joyce Lewis, Beverly Degeyer, Judy Proctor, Laura Wells, Claudette Bourgeois, and Tiffany Guilbeau; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and dear friends.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways
of happy times and laughing times
and bright and summer days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun
of happy memories that I leave
When life is done.*

Tributes

*If roses grow in heaven, Lord please pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my mother's arms and tell her they're from me.*

*We Love You XOXO Mom XOXO & Always Will
-Morris, Jason, James, & Angela.*

*A grandma is a blessing; she's thoughtfulness and love,
The finest and the most precious gift, sent from the Father above.
You know she'll always be there, whether skies be blue or gray.
She'll always lend a helping hand, she'll never turn away.
Each selfless thing about her is special to recall.
Our Grandma was a blessing to us, the most precious one of all.*

-The Grandkids

*My mother-in-law was a wonderful lady. A Godly lady who always sought to please the Lord in all that she did. There wasn't a day that she didn't forget to uplift her children and grandchildren in prayer.
Until We Meet Again,
You Son-in-law, Oscar Stewart*
