In The Garden

*I come to the garden alone,
While the dew is still on the roses,
And the voice I hear falling on my ear.
The Son of God discloses.
And He walks with me,
and He talks with me,
And He tells me I am His own;
And the joy we share as we tarry
there, None other has ever known.*
