In Memory Of

Patricia A. Cline

May 24, 1949 - March 25, 2020

*Do not stand at my grave and weep
For I am not here I do not sleep.*

*I am a thousand winds that blow
I am the diamonds glints on winter snow.*

*I am the hint of fresh earth in Spring.
I am there in the song the meadowlark sings.*

*I am sunlight on golden ripened grain
I am the gentle Autumn rain.*

*I am the hum of a tractor on a hill far away
I am the wonderful smell of new mown hay.*

*I am the whisper of Summer leaves
I am there on every soft cool breeze.*

*I am the blush in the East of every sunrise
I am the mischief in my children's eyes.*

*I am the thrill of coyotes at night
I am the beauty of a pheasant in flight.*

*I am there when my grandchildren cry in their Mother's arms.
I am there in every part of the family farms.*

*So when you waken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight
I am the soft start above you each night.*

*Do not stand at my grave and cry, For I am not here,
I did not die!*
