

The Life and Legacy Of Mr. Brady White

Brady Carson White was born June 9, 1999 to Steven White and Caroline White. Brady Carson White, loving brother, son, friend and uncle. Brady was truly a blessing on Earth. He was such a light for so many people, and was a miracle from the moment he was born. We are beyond grateful for the 21 years that God loaned his precious soul and body to us.

He was a free spirit who loved to travel, jet ski, snowboard, ride his dirt bikes, and be with his family and his girlfriend. Being with his family, friends, and loved ones was the most important thing to him. He was always uplifting others and letting everyone know it would be okay. To truly capture his soul and spirit, we could never do. Brady could make something out of nothing. He loved to build RC cars, and program computers. He also had an engineer mind that no one could understand because he was self taught. He was such a little genius. He was blessed with the kindest heart and wisest brain. He also loved dogs. Anybody who met Brady was touched by his infectious smile, his goofy wit, his intellect and his huge heart. He will be greatly missed, and always remembered.

The White brothers are one of a kind, no one looks after one another like the White brothers, so we know we now have the best Guardian Angel watching over all of us.

He was survived by his parents, a step mom, Dawn, four siblings, Taylor, Olivia, Jared, Zack, a brother in law, Lowry, a niece and two nephews, Riley, Reeves, Wyatt, two grandmothers, Angie and Tommie, and a loving girlfriend, Sable, whom was the light of his life.

Oh baby, how I know you and I both wish you were here. The love you have given me and everyone else is unmatched. All of our many firsts, the memories, and unforgettable times will be engraved in my heart and cherished forever. Your laugh flooded me with joy and your kisses brought me so much comfort because they were so soft and perfect. You gave like no other and did everything with a purpose. I got to have you for three years babe and we saved each other. You'll always be with me forever and always just like you said.. "Just me and you, always and forever.

~Love Sable~
